LeCesne ready to move

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

An upbeat Assistant Romulus Superintendent of Schools Dr. Terrel M. LeCesne feels his more than 25 years of experience in Romulus will help him ignite a latent pride in the Inkster School District that existed years ago.

LeCesne, 56, a native of New Orleans, La., has accepted the challenge to instill the pride back in the Inkster classrooms, lower its heavy dropout rate and upgrade its technological offerings to the student body.

The veteran administrator began his local education career back in the 1960s, as a 6th grade teacher in the Inkster Public Schools.

LeCesne admits being lured to Romulus schools in 1966 as a part-time attendance and Junior High counselor, with a healthy jump in pay.

After leaving Romulus briefly to assume an elementary school principalship in the Willow Run School District in 1968, LeCesne said he returned to Romulus and worked for almost a decade as principal of the Beverly and Mount Pleasant Elementary Schools.

He was invited to join the Romulus School administration in 1979 as personnel and employee relations manager. Only four years later, he was raised to the rank of assistant superintendent of schools for administration services.

LeCesne has served under four superintendents, the majority of the time however has been under current Superintendent Dr. William Bedell.

He credited Bedell with taking him "into the fold and then allowing us to be innovative, creative...and us to spread our wings."

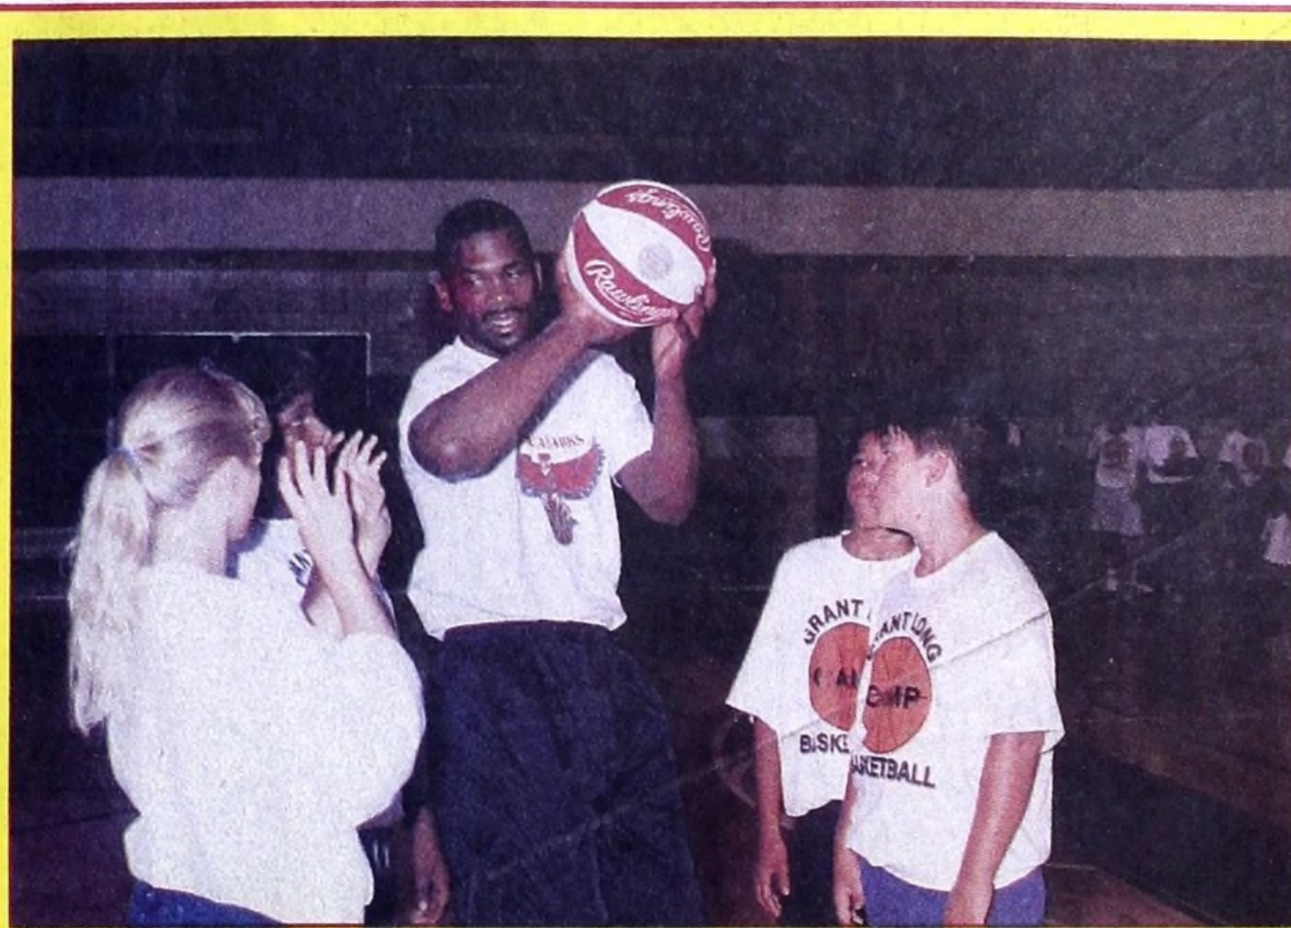

LeCesne said because of "that growth experience I feel extremely ready and capable to take on the challenges facing us in Inkster."

During his career in Romulus, LeCesne saw the school district "plow new ground in education" with the $45 million investment in technology that allows every student daily use of computers.

Bedell earlier had seen federal guidelines block many students' access to computers and thus engaged the community into the massive technology plan opening Romulus students' doors to top quality jobs in the 21st Century, LeCesne said.

On the sports scene, LeCesne said he was "dis-

Candidate states Polluters must repay Romulus

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles on the campaigns for the Romulus City Council. Others will appear in future editions.

Spurred on by his anti-deep well concerns, local accountant Tony A. Heimberger is running a determined campaign for a City Council seat that he hopes will lead to stronger city voices against dumping violations and Detroit Metro Airport gobbling up prime city properties.

Heimberger, 29, revealed Monday night that he decided to get involved in city politics two years ago after hearing about Environmental Disposal Services plans to erect a deep well project within the city.

While only residing in the city for a little more than eight years, Heimberger expects to continue living here for another 30-35 years.

Heimberger said he conferred with neighbors and then City Councilman Russell Lambert in 1993 about several pressing city issues, and deoided that more citizen action was needed.

He along with others co-founded the citizen lobby group Romulus Environmentalists Caring About People (RECAP) and ignited city court action against the deep well project.

But Heimberger claims to be far from a one issue candidate, stating he also feels the city needs to battle against former dump owners and operators to get them to pay for much of the old pollution problems.

"Romulus has been dumped on since the 1950s. It's time to get the polluters to pay for the cleanup and make the land usable once again," he complains.

Heimberger also wants the council to take a heavier stance on Metro Airport expansion, claiming it has divided Romulus into two or more parts.

"We need to become one city again and have Metro Airport accountable to Romulus and its citizens once again," Heimberger charges.

Then speaking on one of his pet peeves, Heimberger said "I do not like the way EDS came in the back door of Romulus." He also feels that no one today can guarantee that the deep well project will remain safe for 10,000 years.

If elected, Heimberger said he will:

Tough teen crime penalties praised

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Bruce Jones, a Romulus father whose son was shot and killed by a 15-year-old last year, said he "thoroughly applauds Gov. John Engler's plans to toughen juvenile crime sentences."

Engler last Thursday told a gathering of county prosecutors at Mackinac Island, that he intends to press for a "Punk Prison" for youths convicted of violent crimes, cut the age youthful offenders can be charged as adults from 15 to 14 and ensure that a juvenile found guilty of such serious crimes as rape, murder or kidnapping would keep those crime records for life.

Jones was deeply concerned in 1994 that the young killer of his son, Chris, would (1) be sentenced as a juvenile and then be freed at the age of 19 or 21; and (2) that his murder record would be wiped clean upon his release from a youth detention area.

The energetic father has worked hard for juvenile justice reform since his son's murder outside Mount Pleasant School in February 1994.

Upon hearing of Engler's announcement last week, Jones said "I'm excited about the positive direction the state of Michigan is taking. It has to be a strong message to get to the ears of today's youth."

Jones also has strong praise for state Sen. William Van Regenmorter, who has been one of the legislative leaders on crime issues in Michigan.

"It's actions taken by such legislators as Van Regenmorter that will make the streets of Michigan safer in the future," Jones said.

There are many loopholes in our juvenile judicial system, Jones continued, and there is still a lot of work to be done. But this has to be considered a major step in the right direction, Jones concluded.

Van Regenmorter, the Republican chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, has vowed that crime issues listed by Engler will have smooth sailing this fall in the legislature.

Chris Jones, son of Bruce Jones, was shot to death in February 1994 outside Mount Pleasant School by a 15-year-old from Taylor who has spurred his father into working on juvenile justice reform in Michigan.

"I'm excited about the positive direction the state of Michigan is taking."

- Bruce Jones

Other criminal investigation changes also will be pressed, Engler said, including the removal of procedural obstacles to effectively probe youth violence, such as permitting police to fingerprint and begin DNA profiling of suspects while they are in police custody.

The changes would also allow probate judges to sign search warrants earlier and to enable witness lineups in crimes committed by young offenders.

Engler also would ask that parents be held responsible for attending criminal hearings involving their children. If the parents fail to appear at such hearings, they could face contempt of court charges.

Van Regenmorter plans to begin a series of hearings on juvenile justice soon around the state of Michigan.

Engler chronicled his reform plans by stating young felons "who do adult crime will face adult time (in prison)."

Cut in indigent aid rankles Pitoniak

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Representative Gregory Pitoniak (D-Taylor) expressed "utter dismay at Gov. John Engler's veto of funding for the Plus Care medical program in Wayne County."

The 22nd district legislator revealed the Plus Care program has provided health care services for over 40,000 indigent county residents, who are not eligible for Medicaid.

"Plus Care is the most efficiently run indigent care program in the state," Pitoniak said.

For Engler to veto such funds for the program, which he helped to establish is beyond me, Pitoniak continued.

The funding cut was part of the $50 million general fund dollars cut by Engler from the Department of Social Services budget.

As it stands now the county will lose $16 million for the Plus Care program ($6.5 million from Michigan and $9.5 in matching funds from the federal government), Pitoniak said.

Thus Pitoniak warns potentially 8,000 Wayne County poor will be forced to use the extremely costly hospital emergency room system instead.

"It seems that Engler is punishing Wayne County for running a financially responsible program," he said.

As Plus Care operates today, the cost to the state is $12 per person per month. All other state-run indigent health care programs cost Michigan taxpayers nearly four times that amount per person, Pitoniak concluded.

Sunday reading

'Eyewitness' provides in-depth coverage, features, reviews

When two equally qualified people - one black and one white - apply for a job, who has the edge? When gangs of rowdies harass residents, what help can be expected from local police? If a $30 million Wayne County bond issue is placed on the ballot, will Western Wayne County taxpayers forget about the one-tenth mill being collected for a youth facility - yet built - and support the county proposal? And, what is the best film to see this weekend? Answers to all of these questions and more are available in the pages of the Eyewitness, published each Sunday by Michigan Community Newspapers.

Staff writer Ivan Helfman will probe into the controversial subject of affirmative action and delve into the proposed $30 million Wayne County bond issue to be used to purchase the City-County Building, build a youth facility and provide monies for $15 million worth of other yet-unnamed projects.

The plight of a Western Wayne family tormented by unruly teens, and so-far unable to alleviate their misery also will be featured in the pages of the Eyewitness.

Each Sunday, the Eyewitness will delve into topics of community concern and feature articles about the "news makers" of Western Wayne County plus local news, comics and cartoons, the Community Calendar, weather forecasts and restaurant and film reviews.

Is Water World all wet? Are Beverly Hills teens really Clueless? Our reviewers the answers to you on Sunday. And, we'll also tell you if the bagel can make the transition from an ethnic tradition to a local food fad.

The strike by the two Detroit dailies and the resulting drop in distribution has prompted the staff of Eyewitness to expand their coverage of local, county, state and national news as it affects residents of Western Wayne County. Additional advertising is also supplied by the inclusion of special supplements and sections in addition to our regular classified and display ads.

The publisher and staff of Michigan Community Newspapers pledge to work hard to "fill the reading gap" during the strike. We believe that new readers will enjoy the variety of topics and features in our Eyewitness each Sunday and that our regular readers will find the expanded coverage a welcome addition to the paper.

Read the Eyewitness this Sunday, we believe you will find it worth far more than its modest newsstand price of 50 cents.

New convenience site hosts opening celebration on weekend

Convenience store shoppers looking for fun, excitement and many free items will enjoy all that and more at the grand opening of the new On The Run Express Market at Mobil this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, at 2120 Rawsonville Road, Belleville.

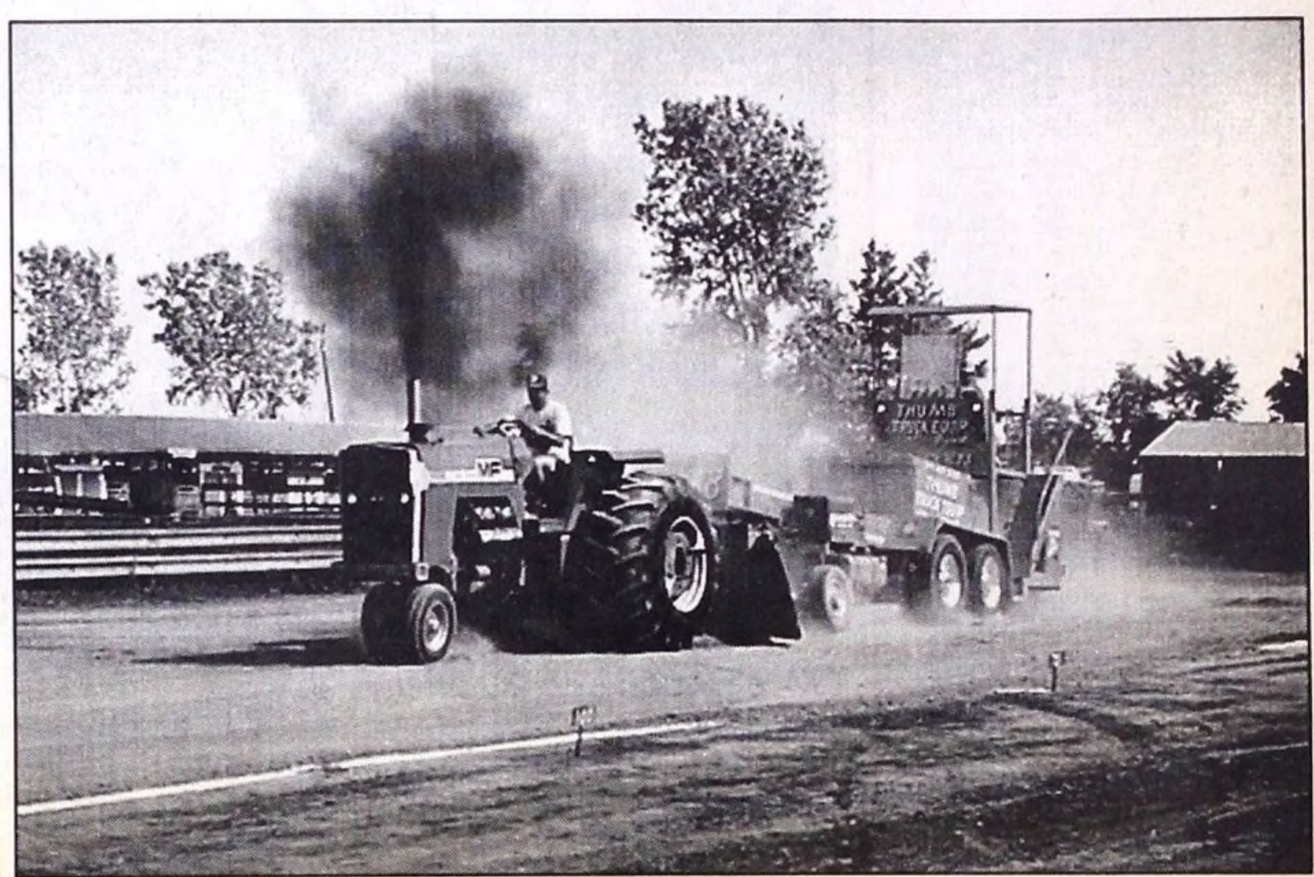

The celebration will feature "free stuff" for both adults and children including a candy bowl drawing, clowns, moon bounce, face painting, caricatures, magician, and balloons. In addition, there will be a drawing for tickets to a Detroit Tigers baseball game, a bike and more.

On the Run is a Mobil Corporation's new concept in one-stop express markets for everything on a shopper's quick list. It features modern store design and layout, attractive displays, and convenient access to all merchandise, brightly lit interiors and exteriors, and a variety of fresh and prepared foods, gourmet coffee, and fresh Dunkin' Donuts.

The new On the Run Express Market is managed by Jim Safiedine, who has overseen the Mobil Service Station at that location since December of 1994.

"I am delighted to bring this new On The Run Express Market to our community," said Safiedine. "Our goal is to provide shoppers with a wide variety of high-quality products, fresh foods, and even produce. It's the new alternative for everything on a shopper's quick list. We invite all of our regular patrons as well as new friends to join us in this grand opening celebration."

League to honor players

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

It was a roller coaster year for the Romulus Little League in 1995 with deep financial problems besetting it early on and the local All Stars hosting the area playoffs this July.

While some playing field problems remain for the local Little League, parents and league officials were encouraged that interest in the sport seems to be growing within the city.

"We had more than 400 Romulus kids involved this year," league equipment manager Bob DeMoisey revealed Monday night, "and two new T-ball teams were fielded in 1995."

The need for a Little League complex became apparent, DeMoisey said, as we visited other city parks. In addition some type of refreshment stand is needed, as this year most of the time we were selling pop out of portable coolers, he said.

Most of the games were played near the old Mount Pleasant School, he said, but the two existing fields need more work done on them and a third field there would be extremely helpful in developing a future Little League complex.

DeMoisey hopes that more volunteerism develops in coming years from both the business owners and the citizens at large.

Most of the 50 volunteers who aided the league play this year were parents, who had youth in the program, he said.

Local officials were excited that Romulus was the host site for the area playoffs this year. The field at the high school was used for those high profile games. The Romulus All Stars beat its counter-parts from Flat Rock, but were eliminated by a team from Taylor.

To celebrate the improvements in the league this year, a picnic is being planned at 11 a.m. Aug. 26 at Huron Metro Park. At that time every player who took part in the Little League this year will be awarded a trophy, DeMoisey said.

Key fund raisers held late in 1994 and early this year have been credited with turning the league's finances around.

One of the early sparks to this year's revival was the fall bowling fund raiser, he said, and plans are being made to conduct a similar bowling adventure this fall.

Other major fund raisers during the year were a spaghetti supper, a candy sale and a youth sleep over attended by hundreds of youth at Little Caesar's Restaurant.

Election of league officers will take place in September, DeMoisey concluded.

Pool, recreation needs are stressed

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

This is the first of a series of news articles on current Romulus City Council candidates. It is being rerun today because of a copy mix-up in an earlier edition.

Rookie City Council candidate Jeannine Wafer-Frison revealed recently she feels that city officials currently are so consumed with the environmental deep well issue that many other critical matters are being left unattended.

Wafer-Frison, 48, the mother of three, revealed the focus of her campaign will be on the need for better city communication on affordable housing in the area and the urgency for the creation of a multi-recreation facility for youth and adults.

"We cannot afford continued tax abatement in the city of Romulus," she said, "and as city officials we must enforce claims by such businesses that they will indeed hire Romulus residents. With the extensive industry now in Romulus, there should be no jobless problems here. Obviously we know there are, so something is definitely amiss."

The determined candidate, who has lived in Romulus for more than 40 years, states "there still is time to save many of the 6 and 7-year-old youth in this city and that is why I will be fighting as hard as I can for a new recreational complex that will include areas for swimming, boxing and basketball activities."

Having received diplomas from Romulus High School and Dorsey Business School, she also has taken classes at Detroit Business Institute and Ross Business College.

In the past she has worked for the Romulus Roman and Romulus News, J.C. Penny Stores and the security units at

Jeannine Wafer-Frison

Detroit Metro Airport.

She has served on the Mayor's Drug Task Force and has been administrative assistant to Rev. Walter A. Steen of the Holy City Church of Inkster.

She currently is employed with MIZPAH Group Homes, Inc. of Detroit. Her employer Alonzo K. Morgan endorses her run for the council stating she is a dedicated employee, "who keeps a sincere focus on the needs of those with whom she is allied."

She currently is helping to coordinate the 50's and 60's Romulus High School Class Reunion Picnic slated for Aug. 26 at Elmer Johnson Park.

"We have already enrolled 115 alumni and hope to sign on another 100 before the picnic," she said.

Wafer-Frison is the mother of three grown children, LaTrice, Sherri and Jerome.

She plans to do some extended door to door vote solicitations with the help of her campaign committee.

heartened that Romulus had to fight to get into the current Mega League," but is happy Bedell had the fortitude to fight the perceived discrimination against heavily minority based school districts.

While LeCesne is sad he will be leaving many friends in the Romulus School District, LeCesne is excited about the chance to lead the efforts in his hometown of Inkster. He served as Inkster mayor from 1975-79.

In addition to the Inkster dropout rate problems, LeCesne said, he also wants to stem the tide of the student exodus from the district. He claims too many students are leaving to attend religious schools or schools outside the district.

He blames most of the past problems in the Inkster schools on the strange Michigan school funding policies, but feels some of those problems have been alleviated with the implementation of Proposal A efforts.

within the school district are not quite as bad as communities outside Inkster perceive them to be.

LeCesne states while he and current Mayor Ed Bivens may be on opposite sides of some political issues, he expects a great teamwork to develop within Inkster and that will include the offices of local District Judge Sylvia James (who is a graduate of Inkster High School).

LeCesne said the Southwest Block Club of Inkster also will be a mighty force in that teamwork effort.

A funny thing happened on the way to the Wayne Country Fest and Sidewalk Sales last weekend. This reporter was summoned to the rooftop to check out an air conditioning problem. While the two technicians were pointing out the problem a gust of wind surged through the parking lot and blew the ladder over.

Mike's musings

Mike Wilcox

Picture the situation. The building was a large industrial building on a secluded street. No less than 30 people were diligently working inside the building. That was inside. Outside there was no one. No one entering the building. No one exiting. No cars coming down the secluded street. No help, period.

So there we were. Up on the roof with no way down. Your mind can conjure the craziest things when one is in such a predicament. I was thinking about a blurb I had just finished reading in MCN's Eyewitness. Naturally it was about a guy who had fallen off his roof only to be mauled by a pit bull.

According to the LIFE 101 account, Gordon Poole was looking to confiscate some marijuana from his neighbor's garden. The major obstacle with this plan was the pit bull. He climbed the roof of his house to see if the pit bull was loose in the yard.

Ironically, "he fell off, hit his head and then the dog attacked him," said Police Lt. Joe Haebe. Poole ended up with a spinal injury and several dog bites. He also learned the hard way that, yes, the dog was loose.

I need not fear a roving vicious dog. None existed in the neighborhood. That settled, my mind began to wander on to former governor George Romney, who was found dead on his treadmill. You see, I had just finished a vigorous workout on the treadmill before climbing the ladder to the roof's peak.

Romney, to me, was a political hero. Here was a guy that had transcended all political barriers and was respected by Democrats and Republicans alike. He set the benchmark for the consummate politician. He also was a very devoted husband, father and civic volunteer.

Despite being always on the go, Romney presented his wife, Lenore, with a rose each and every day of their married life—63 years. He also made her breakfast each morning. He accomplished these acts of thoughtfulness during his reign as president of American Motors, as governor of this state, and in retirement.

Back to the treadmill. My heart was pumping fast, however, I was able to convince myself it had nothing to do with my earlier workout. I was still on this roof. The heat was unbearable. No one was coming down the street. No one was hearing our screams for help. What were we to do?

We did nothing. For three hours we hung out on the rooftop. Finally, we were able to flag a landscaper atop a riding mower, down. He was a quarter mile down the street but after heaving several rocks at him and yelling at the top of our lungs the guy came over to check out the commotion. He graciously lifted the ladder to the roof and our ordeal was over.

Needless to say, I never did make it to the Wayne Country Fest and Sidewalk Sale. This reporter, chose instead to go home, jump into the jacuzzi and soak his aching body. I had had enough excitement for one day.

Canton bid selection leaves low bidder out

In the past, when Michigan Community Newspapers submitted a bid, it was assumed that if its price was the lowest and all of the bid requirements were met, the bid was won.

Apparently, this is not true when the bidder is the Charter Township of Canton.

The Canton Eagle, published by Michigan Community Newspapers, submitted a bid of $5.20 per column inch to publish the legal notices for the township. In its bid, the Eagle agreed to all terms of the bid specifications, including those which required that notices be placed within the first five pages of the newspaper.

By submitting the low bid, considerably lower than the Community Crier at $6 per column inch and the Parents have right to visit

To the editor:

I want to tell your readers about a very special law that Illinois passed in January 1994. The Illinois Unlawful Visitation Interference Act is the first law in the nation that makes it a crime to subvert parents' rights to visit their children.

According to the Friend of the Court's handbook, visitation cannot be denied because of lack of child support and support cannot be denied because of no visitation. However, the non-custodial parent gets the short end of the stick when it comes to any violations in visitations.

In the current system, the non-custodial parent has to hire a lawyer just to have the custodial parent receive a slap on the wrist. That's where the law comes in.

All the non-custodial parent has to do is call the police and he or she has a prosecutor on their side and does not have to hire a lawyer. The police issue the offender a citation to appear in criminal court; three convictions can bring up to a year in jail.

The total winners in this case are the children who have the God-given right to love and be loved by both parents without any problems.

I contacted my law maker

in Lansing and she's interested. What we need is for all non-custodial parents and their loved ones to contact their own lawmakers and tell them that they want and need a similar law passed in Michigan.

Or maybe what is needed in violations is for custody to be changed to the other parent.

But most importantly: Write or phone your lawmakers!!

Seniors say 'Thanks'

To the editor:

During the hot scorching heat wave last week the residents of Wayne Towers had their air conditioner out of service. We received help as of last Wednesday.

We are grateful to all and our most heartfelt thank you's go out to our Fire Dept. and the Chief of the E.M.S. Crew. They stayed out at our building 3 days and nights and gave us any help needed. Channel 4 News crew was also here. Mayor Warfield came out and stayed on the phone until he got some action.

We received window air conditioners for the main floor. There were four and also fans, which as we understand were brought in by Annapolis Hospital. Wayne Community Center opened their doors with sleeping cots, breakfast, lunch and dinner. Our manager Constance Roberts, cut her vacation short last Friday and stayed 22 hours. Lemonade and popsicles were supplied. The assistant manager Melisa Morton, maintenance man, Verdel Bailey (wonder if he had any soles left on his shoes), and his helpers Daryl and Paul, were all on the go. Friday night the Community Center had a senior load up the truck with cots for our building in the multipurpose room. He was out there in the hot sun, loading and unloading. Saturday morning our manager Constance, had doughnuts, coffee, iced tea and later lunch meats and other goodies to last us all day.

To all these wonderful, generous, kind people we thank them all. We are very grateful and we want them to know it. Someday if they should need help, I hope they are all remembered and rewarded well.

Also there was a nurse stationed here from Annapolis Hospital. We want these people to know how much we appreciate all their help. If there is anyone we omitted, our thanks to them also and our Smart Bus service.

God Bless you all. We all wish you well.

Residents of Wayne Towers

To the editor for printing our letter - many thanks also. I don't think any Hallmark Card would have said it any better.

Dad seeks his son

To the editor:

I am writing to your paper to see if your readers can help me find my son. My son's name is Gene Allan Pierce. His mother's name is Debra Sue Pierce. His adopted father's name is Otis Pierce. His grandfather's name is Joseph Tomcolla of Detroit. He retired from Chrysler Corp. as a tool and die maker. He owned a home on 4144 Edmund St. in Wayne when I was married to Debra Sue. He lived at that time in Dearborn, Michigan. He moved to Detroit and lives there now.

My ex-wife Debra Sue moved to Belmont, Mississippi in 1973 or 1974 with my son and remarried this Otis Pierce. My son Gene Allan also has two half brothers named John and Randy Weller. That was her name when I married her.

Sound-Off 729-4006

Callers comment on police, community involvement, politics

Callers to the Sound-Off 729-4006 line had some nice things to say about the Inkster Police Department and additional comments on the Romulus political scene and Wayne entertainment programs.

Readers are invited to call between 5 p.m. and 8 a.m. daily and at any time during the weekend to register the comments or complaints on any subject of general interest.

The following calls were received:

I would like to thank the city of Inkster Police Department for their effort to help the residents of the 3700 block of Harriet make it a safer place. I think if we continue to work together, I think it can be like any nice neighborhood. I would also like to thank the city for their efforts to help us clean up the area at Carlisle and Harriet. If more people would get involved, we can make this a much nicer place to live.

The article Al Post wrote about in the paper regarding the election said that Mr. Gear and Mr. Wadsworth were the only two council members that were assured to being re-elected. Mr. Gear and Mr. Wadsworth have never done anything for this city and you are saying that some of the councilmen will not be re-elected and these are the only ones who respond to citizens' complaints and suggestions. People call Mr. Pennington. Print that, Al Post.

I have been a resident of Wayne since the '50s and have seen Wayne develop. Lately, it seems that Wayne has gone sour.

No longer does the city have culture. Now, all events center around alcohol, making the job of the police and fire department that much more difficult.

Why do we have to have alcohol. We need to get some more businesses in Wayne besides bars. I have watched the historic Wayne Theater struggle to get its doors open. Why doesn't the city help? We need this city. Let's get Wayne back into class and culture.

Readers are invited to call in their comments on the following issues:

Do you believe that affirmative action is still needed?

Should there be a year-round school term, with short vacations during the year?

Do you support the death penalty for first-degree murder?

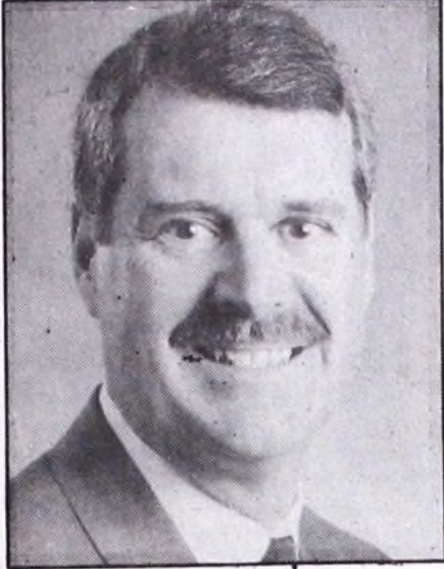

Should young felons who commit adult crimes do adult time - in prison?

How can drug use be reduced among teens and young adults?

Do you believe funds used to fight tobacco usage would be better spent on discouraging the use of hard drugs?

Quotable...

Week planned to honor minority businessmen

A week to highlight minority businesses is planned in September with a Minority Enterprise Development (MED) week on Sept. 24 to 27.

The 1995 MED week theme is "Minority Business: Building America's Future Through Economic Growth and Job Creation". The highlight of the week's activities will be a presentation of the Minority Small Business Person of the Year Award.

This award will be presented to the Minority Small Business Person who best exemplifies success. The recipient of this award will also be considered for national honors.

The SBA will select the Minority Small Business Person of the Year Award from nominees that:

- Have been in business at least three years.
 - Have demonstrated growth in sales, profit, and employment.
 - Have demonstrated participation in community projects and charitable organizations.
 - Have used minority firms as suppliers, subcontractors, etc.
 - Own and operate a minority small business in accordance with SBA's rules and regulations; and
 - Are in satisfactory financial condition?
- Nominations must include the name of the company, chief executive officer, address, telephone number, fax number, and type of company. Contact Conrad Valle at 313-226-6075, extension 54 for information.

Bidder

Observer Newspapers at $6.30 per column inch, it was expected that the Eagle would be chosen over its higher priced competitors.

Not so. In a 4-3 vote, the Canton Township Board voted to accept the high bid, submitted by the Observer Newspapers, which incidentally was the only one of the three that did not comply to the bid specifications.

It is difficult for us to understand why the township board chose to pay $1.20 more per column inch to publish its notices, and then apparently agreed to have its notices published in any position that was selected by the high bidder - not within the guidelines that have been part of the bid specifications for many years.

Clearly, the bid process was not done on a "level playing field." Requirements adhered to by two of the bidders were ignored by the third, which was then "rewarded" for its refusal to comply with the specifications.

It is not only the Eagle which suffered a loss in the bid, it is the taxpayers and citizens of Canton and the integrity of the bidding process.

Office to host open house

To observe the 60th anniversary of the Social Security administration, there will be an open house from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Aug. 14, at the Social Security office, 2500 Hamlin, Inkster.

The office is located directly behind the fire station on Michigan Avenue, west of Inkster Road.

The opening ceremony will begin at 10 a.m. with general informational seminars given at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Historical exhibits, video presentation, office tours, refreshments will be available.

"The 60th Anniversary of the Social Security system is a time to celebrate. It helps us focus on one of the good things to which we aspire," said Frances M. Heimes-Savickis, field representative.

Social Security represents one of the nation's most successful social programs - one that supports the lives and dreams of millions of people. It's a good idea to come take time out to celebrate

We separated and I moved back to Florida. Then she got a divorce in 1972 and remarried and no one let me know about the adoption of my son.

My son was born October 21 of 1970. He will be 25 years old this October.

I would hope one of your readers might know my son and we can get to know each other. I am 50 years old now, and I just found out last year that the man that raised me up was not my real father. So I wrote to the town where my real father was raised up at and I found his family but he had already passed away. But I did find two brothers and a lot of cousins who welcomed me into their hearts.

I had a major heart attack in 1991 and had to go through a triple by-pass surgery. Now I am disabled and I don't know how much longer I have on this earth. I need to let my son know about his medical history on my side of my new family.

And to let him know that I have tried everything to find him and let him know that I love him now and loved him then. But his mother and her family wouldn't let me know anything about him. When I married his mother my name at that time was Donald E. Fudge, and he was born Gene Allan Fudge. She and I met in Wayne, and we lived with her stepfather, Joseph Tomcallo, at 4144 Edmund St. in Wayne. I worked at the truck plant there in Wayne for a while, so if you can help me find my son, please call me collect or write me at this address: Donald E. Barnes, P.O. Box 171, Ferndale, Fla. 34729. Telephone 1-407-469-2042 day or night.

Thank you for anything that you can do for me.

Program needs support

To the editor:

The Wayne Metropolitan Community Service Agency is requesting your assistance with recruiting 100 volunteers for its 1995-96 Help Inkster Kids Excel (HIKE) program.

Wayne Metro makes a difference in the lives of disadvantaged residents of Out-Wayne County: providing employment and training services, assisting low-income families winterize their homes, finding permanent housing for the homeless, preventing foreclosure on delinquent mortgages and shut-offs of utility payments, enhancing the quality of life for senior citizens and operating after-school programs for youth. Our non-profit, tax exempt status is indicated by the enclosed form C-3136.

The HIKE program will provide 100 youth, between the ages of 9-14 living in Inkster, with an adult friend (mentor) outside of the family with whom they can talk responsibly about things that concern him/her, and receive tutorial assistance. This program is scheduled to begin in September.

Should you have any questions regarding our request for assistance or are in need of any additional information, please contact this writer at (313) 843-2550. Thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation in our efforts to ...

Help Inkster Kids Excel.

Charter school supported

To the editor:

I have a few words to say about charter schools: More! More! More!

Charter schools will be the salvation of public education in this country.

The current highly protected and unionized monopoly system has degenerated into nothing more than a high priced baby-sitting service.

In the future - charter schools will offer each child a chance to have an education customized to his or her interests, talents and needs. In the new information age, the watchwords for education will be: Customize. Customize. Customize.

No longer will we be enslaved by the archaic "one-size-fits-all" system developed by our "low-tech" agrarian forefathers.

No longer will a bright and motivated student be held hostage to a system that seeks routine and uniformity - even at the price of mediocrity and dullness.

Even more importantly - no longer will less bright students be stigmatized and made to feel inferior by an "out-of-touch" system that rewards only the college bound, and reduces everyone else to second class status.

The new charter schools will allow us to create a modern day equivalent of the apprenticeship system - similar to the one so highly praised in Germany.

In the future, we will look back with horror at the present education system that for generations has allowed 18 year olds to graduate into the world totally unskilled and virtually illiterate. There is no excuse for a system of education, as expensive as ours, to be mass producing unskilled labor.

Recently, in Westland, a charter school was established for educationally challenged kids. So much for the "cherry-picking" argument. Additionally, another charter school has been set up to cater to students interested in automotive technology.

With the help of parents and enlightened educators, more customized charter schools will be coming.

These career specific schools will motivate kids - who are understandably bored with current schools because the curriculum seems irrelevant to their lives and their futures.

These are exciting times in education. Why did we wait so long to make this change! Every parent and student would be mightily rejoicing. The old monopoly is dead. The "hostage taking" is over.

Let's give the old monopoly a decent burial. Then let's move on with the task of giving each child the best and most customized education that money can buy.

Welcome to the 21st Century!

Recycled refrigerants available for air conditioners

By RACHAEL LEWIS
MCN Staff Writer

Most consumers are aware of the governmental ban on producing more of the refrigerant, R-12, but few know that there is an alternative other than the costly kit to change automotive air conditioners over to the R-134 refrigerant system.

Refrigerants are recyclable, and Golden Refrigerant of Wayne does just that. Actually, they reclaim and purify refrigerants so that they are as good as newly made refrigerants, according to the firm.

There are more than 30 different types of refrigerants used commercially today. Freon is the Dupont trademark term for these refrigerants, and R-12 and R-134 are the most commonly known refrigerants to the general public.

Carl Grolle, owner of Golden Refrigerants, said, "When your automotive air conditioner is worked on, the mechanic is required by law to evacuate the refrigerant from the system, and leak test your system. If there is a leak it must be fixed before they can refill your refrigerant. If you don't want to pay their prices or decide not to have the leak fixed there, you will leave without your refrigerant."

"The refrigerant is put into a storage container, with the refrigerants of several other cars. This may contaminate your refrigerant. Many times people don't know that their refrigerant is mixed with the refrigerant from other vehicles," Grolle continued.

"They don't know to ask if the refrigerant is new, used and unclean, or reclaimed."

There are 'recycling machines' that many service stations may use, but unless you have a gas chromatographer you can't tell if the chemicals have been contaminated."

A gas chromatographer analyzes the chemicals at their boiling and freezing temperatures. Every chemical has different boiling and freezing temperatures, and mixing of two different substances will change the readings completely.

According to the July 3, 1995 issue of The Air Conditioning Heating and Refrigeration News, "Recycling machines retain mixes of refrigerants," says Gary Halperin, sales manager of Neutronics. In Baltimore, one machine contained CFC-12 and HFC-134a.

Golden Refrigerant is the only EPA certified refrigeration reclamation center in the southeast Michigan area. Service stations, dealerships and reclaim businesses bring in 50 pound containers of refrigerant. Golden uses a process of gas chromatography testing to find out if the refrigerant is mixed. If it is mixed, it becomes labeled as toxic waste.

If it is just "dirty" they buy it and go through a process of evaporating and condensing the refrigerant to purify it.

Golden Refrigerant is certified by the Environmental Protection Agency. They send samples of all of their reclaimed batches of chemicals to an independent company for testing. The independent company will test the samples to see if they match the EPA requirements.

The reclaimed refrigerants such as R-12 are sold around $8 per pound, in 30 pound one way, out flowing only.

NOBODY MAKES HOME

OWNERSHIP EASIER.

At Standard Federal, getting the lowest mortgage rate is a lock.

No matter what mortgage rates do next, you can get the lowest Standard Federal interest rate possible with our unique Rate Lock or Lower feature.

If you're thinking about buying a home, or refinancing your current mortgage, you've probably been keeping an eye on the recent drop in mortgage interest rates.

You can make interest rate changes work to your advantage with Rate Lock or Lower at Standard Federal. When you apply for a mortgage or for refinancing, Rate Lock or Lower not only locks in your interest rate at the time of application to protect your rates from going up – it also guarantees you that if our interest rates have gone down by the time you close, you get the lower rate while your Lock or Lower commitment is in effect. (Rate Lock or Lower not available on certain No-Point/No-Fee Mortgages.)

That's right – you get the rate at the time of application or at the time of closing – whichever is lower.

By getting the lowest rate possible, you could save cash every month over the course of your mortgage. That's why now is the time to talk to Standard Federal about our unique Rate Lock or Lower opportunity. Give us a call at 1-800/643-9600 or stop by your neighborhood Standard Federal Banking Center today.

The UofM transfer can take you just about anywhere you want to go.

You could start the trip this August.

This August, 1995, the University of Michigan Dearborn has just the ticket for everyone's career path. We call it Michigan Advantage Month. What it means for you is that admissions counselors are waiting to tell YOU how you can transfer to U of M Dearborn. They will show you how to transfer your college credits, how to organize your course plans and answer questions on the ever-vital area of financial aid.

"Michigan Advantage" or "one-stop" service, the effect is the same. We check to see that you meet our admissions standards. Then you get the advice and direction you need to walk away with a Fall course schedule and a start on your degree from U of M.

And our advisory services are not just for undergraduate students. We will talk to anyone interested in graduate and professional programs in engineering, education, management, public administration and other fields. U of M Dearborn was rated a "best value" by U.S. News and World Report. That is a ranking based on the quality of the institution measured against the cost for students.

Ten days in August have been set aside for walk-in students or those who take the bus. We will also be glad to schedule appointments with students who can't make it to campus during the open days. Interested students, and we hope that means you, should call the Admissions Office at (313) 593-5443. Of course, if you're electronically driven, you can get us at our E Mail address. That's umdglobl@umd.umich.edu.

Remember, the trip starts when you get here.

A U of M Degree.

Closer to you now than ever before.

Tough job

Prison crisis is on state senator's agenda for 1995

By JOAN DYER-ZINNER
MCN Managing Editor

When the Republican Caucus meets, it will be looking for recommendations on prison population problems from State Senator Loren Bennett, R-Canton.

"I was named to chair a committee of four to make recommendations on prisons," said Bennett, noting that the task is a difficult one - with no easy solutions.

Bennett believes that non-violent criminals might be utilized in some type of work programs.

"At present, drug cases are clogging our courts and prisons," Bennett said. "I do not advocate legalizing drugs, but there should be some way to utilize some of the non-violent inmates in work projects, such as Habitat for Humanity."

Bennett said inmates could be utilized, under supervision, to work on building homes for the needy. Since these programs are done by volunteer labor, they would not take away jobs from the construction trade, but they would teach skills to the participants and give them the pride of accomplishment when the task is completed.

"We've got to find creative ways of dealing with our prison population crisis, instead of having the taxpayer pick up the tab," Bennett said.

"A possible solution would

"We've got to find creative ways of dealing with our prison population crisis, instead of having the taxpayer pick up the tab."

be to send prisoners out of state to serve their terms. Costs to house a prisoner for one year in Michigan are approximately $35,000, but the state of Alabama houses prisoners for $9,200," said Bennett.

The state senator said Texas and Alabama both currently take prisoners from other states. The other states could "earn" a profit, if, for example, Michigan would pay $15,000 for each prisoner housed.

"If we housed prisoners out of the state, we would deduct $35,000 from the prison budget for each one sent to another state," said Bennett.

The senator said he has visited an Alabama prison and found it to be more like an Army barracks than the dormitory-style facility in Michigan.

"Our prisons may not be "fun," but they obviously are not a deterrent to criminals," Bennett said, noting that the barracks-style prisons seem more likely to deter repeaters. "I don't advocate that prisoners be ill treated or denied basic needs, but I do think there is a limit to the amount of money that the taxpayers want to pay for inmate housing."

"Perhaps, we wouldn't even have to do more than propose such a plan to prompt Michigan prison officials to find ways to cut their costs," Bennett said. "It might prove to be an incentive to cut costs if officials were faced with losing $35,000 from their budget each time a prisoner was housed out of state."

Loren Bennett

Whatever recommendations are made to the Caucus in September, Bennett believes that a lot of work needs to be done to solve the prison population problem.

Lobbyist gift-giving curbed to lawmakers

New rules to curb gift-giving by lobbyists may have an impact on lawmakers and their staffs when adopted at the first of next year.

Senator Carl Levin, D-Mich, called new rules to curb gifts of meals, tickets, and vacations to members of the U.S. Senate paid for by lobbyists passed by lawmakers Friday "a good bill, but not a great bill."

"The American people are telling us to change the way we operate here in many ways. With passage of this strong gift to reform measure today, we have told them: We hear you and we are responding," Levin said. "We have a responsibility to increase public confidence in this institution."

"This is a good bill, but not a great bill," the Michigan lawmaker added. "We got two-thirds of what we wanted. This is not a home run, but I'd call it a triple."

The new Senate gift reform rules, passed by the Senate 98-0, will prohibit Senators or their staff having recreational paid for by others. This rule is aimed at putting an end to the practice of lobbyists paying for vacations for some lawmakers and their families at some of the nation's most posh resorts, which have earned the public scorn.

The measure also provides that no member of the Senate or their employees knowingly accept a gift that they reasonably believe has a value of no more than $50. Moreover, the rule prohibits Senators or their staff from accepting more than $100 in gifts from any single source over one year's time. All gifts over $10 in value will count toward the annual limit, putting an end to repeated tickets and meals from a single source.

Under these reforms, lobbyists will be prohibited from contributing any items of value to legal expense funds, congressional retreats, or conferences or charities controlled by a Senator or their staff.

The new gift rule will allow exceptions for gifts based on a personal or family relationship. Accepting, food, refreshments, and entertainment at a widely attended event where a Senator is speaking or the event is related to his or her official duties will still be permitted.

Informational material such as books and videotapes, as well as trophies and items of modest value are still allowed.

As with the current rule, gifts based on a personal relationship that are valued at over $250 must be approved by the Ethics Committee and must be disclosed on a financial disclosure form.

Current law allows members of Congress and their staffs to accept aggregate gifts of up to $250 from anybody, including lobbyists, and gifts of under $100 do not count toward the limit.

These reforms will become part of the standing rules of the Senate and will take effect Jan. 1, 1996.

Mayor launches 'Watch' program

Westland Mayor Robert Thomas unveiled the city's new Neighborhood Watch Program at 5:30 p.m. Monday in the west parking lot of City Hall.

The program officially began Aug. 1.

It was initiated by Mayor Thomas to help eliminate various problems in the community, such as vandalism and graffiti. The program consists of volunteers who will drive through the city and call in to the police anything they see that is suspicious or wrong. The volunteers will be using building department vehicles with radios and cellular phones, which have been donated to the city for this program.

Mayor Thomas said, "A lot of time and effort went into putting together this program, and I feel that it will have a tremendous impact on the community. With the volunteers and the city working together, we will achieve positive results."

Mayor Robert Thomas

Abuse council seeks community exhibitors

The Child Abuse Prevention Council of Out-Wayne County (CAPCo) is seeking exhibitors from the cities of Belleville, Canton, Inkster, Romulus, Wayne and Westland to participate in its Fourth Annual "Celebrate Families" Community Resource Fair to be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Oct. 21. Please contact Tricia

Cole-Klaes at (313) 721-5901.

It is an opportunity for human service and non-profit agencies to inform the community of the assistance and support they offer. Families of all sizes, ages, and cultures have significantly benefited from the wealth of information distributed in the past from "Celebrate Families."

The gift of sight

Canton youth inspires others to become an eye donor

By MARGO DEWEY
MCN News Editor

He has the all-American look. His hair is golden blond, and when he smiles, an entire room can light up.

Patrick Pruitt, 11, may look like the boy next door, but the Canton Township resident can be considered much more. He is a survivor, a person who knows how to face an obstacle head on and overcome all the set backs.

At the age of 4, Pruitt taught himself to read. He enjoyed getting to know most any book, and when he was finished meeting new friends within the many pages of a story, he would start writing one of his own.

This love for reading and writing, however, ended when Pruitt lost sight in one of his eyes when he was only 4 years old.

"I really don't remember much as to what happened exactly," Pruitt said. "All I do remember is I had an infection. I didn't feel much pain at all."

It's devastating for any family when a child is afflicted physically in any way. Pruitt's parents, Dave and Lynn searched for the best medical treatment for their son.

"I think it's very important. Being a donor means saving a life."

- Patrick Pruitt

"Basically the doctors gave us two options," said Dave Pruitt. "They said either he be placed on medication or we consider a transplant for Patrick. We decided on the transplant especially with Patrick being so young at the time."

Pruitt was placed on a donor wait list when he was 6 years old. Miraculously it took only two months before the Canton native was matched with a donor.

"The operation took place at the University of Michigan Mott's Children's Hospital," said his father. "He had no side effects and no rejection. The only thing he had was a little redness which we took care of with eye drops."

Because of Pruitt's tremendous success and courage, he was selected by the Michigan Eye-Bank as an Ambassador traveling to various organizations throughout the state encouraging others to be a donor.

"I think it's very important," said the 11-year-old. "Being a donor means saving a life."

Pruitt can now enjoy reading and writing as he had when he was a child. He also plays baseball and is a self-proclaimed Lego maniac. Although he wears glasses for an unrelated problem, he now knows he can achieve anything he puts his mind to.

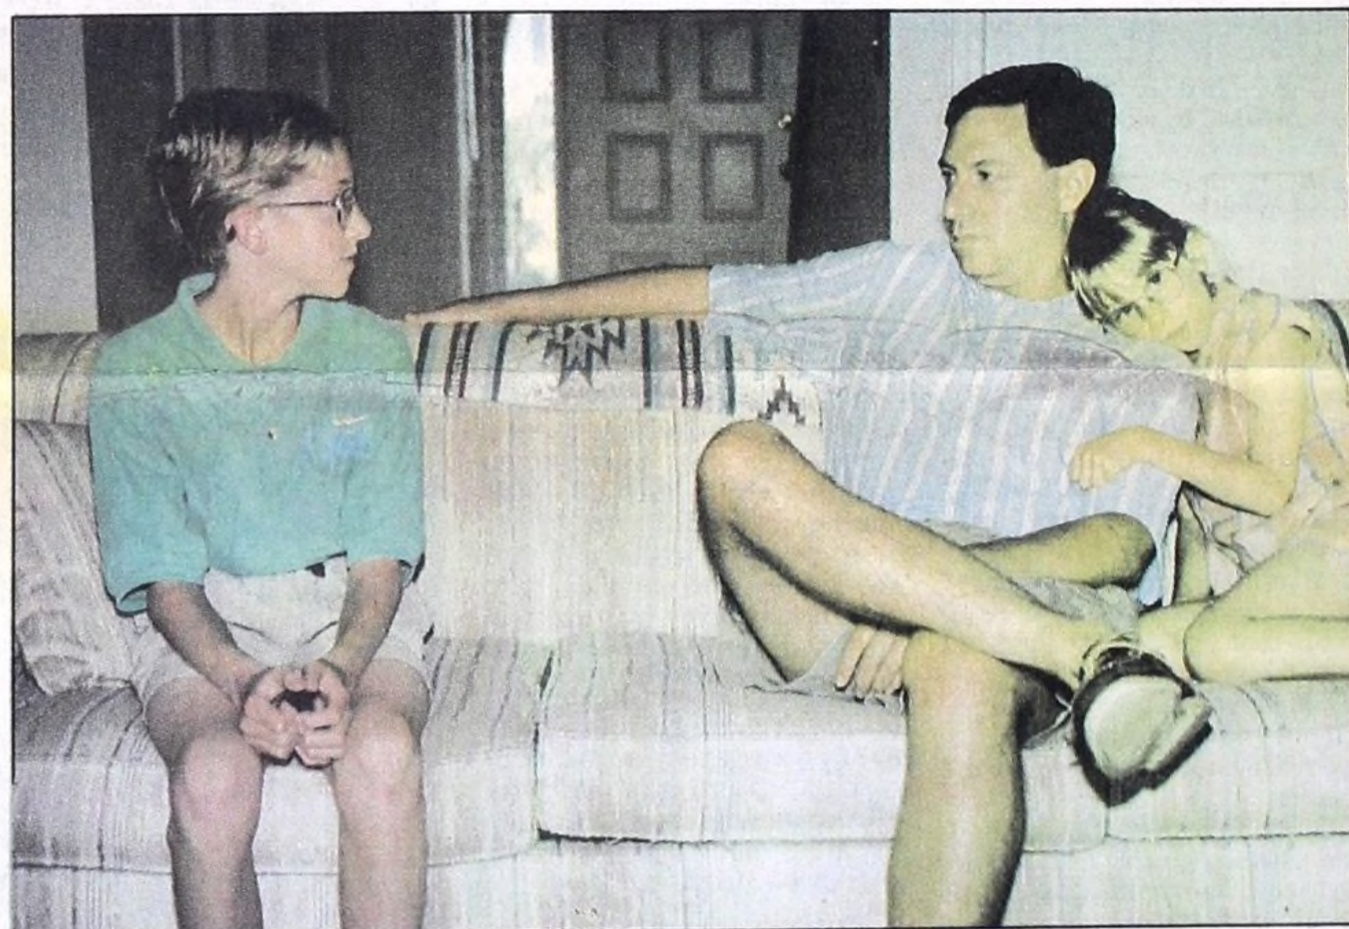

"I like being an Ambassador," said Pruitt. "I get to meet a lot of people and talk to them about the importance of being a donor. I appeared before the Lion's Club where I gave a speech."

What audience was most affected by Pruitt's wisdom and survival story?

"A first grade class," said Pruitt. "They were really interested in what I had to tell them."

As a Michigan Eye-Bank Ambassador Pruitt volunteers his time each month to promote awareness of the constant need for eye donors. In addition to letter writing, public speaking and interviews, he

Patrick Pruitt's father, Dave, and sister, Elizabeth, are very proud of his courage. Pruitt travels to various organizations each month to give a presentation on the importance of being a donor. He said one of his favorite groups he appeared before was a first-grade class. He said he enjoys being a speaker, especially when it involves helping others. MCN photo by Kimberly Woloskie

Wayne store shares wedding bliss with Tom Arnold

By HEATHER NEEDHAM
MCN Staff Writer

A Wayne store owner recently got a taste of celebrity life when his chain of stores was chosen to provide the tuxedos for the Tom Arnold/Julie Champnella wedding, which took place on Saturday.

The wedding had approximately 698 guests.

Richard Nadeau, owner of Brothers Formal Wear in Dearborn, and Formal Affair in Wayne said his company provided 22 suits for the wedding, but Tom Arnold already had his own tuxedo, he said.

The tuxedos cost $95 each, and were designed by Pierre Cardin.

Nadeau called the attire "very plain." "They were just plain vests," he said.

Nadeau did not meet Arnold or Champnella personally. But, an employee named Carl Schell, who works at the Dearborn store did get to meet Arnold and his best man, actor/comedian Chris Farley, star of the recent movie Tommy Boy.

Schell said it was exciting meeting celebrities, especially funny ones like Arnold and Farley.

"He was a real nice guy,"

Schell said of Arnold. Farley and Arnold were "super likable guys," he said.

Schell said he looked more forward to meeting Farley than meeting Arnold. "I think he's so funny," he said. He was impressed by Farley and Arnold's down-to-earth personalities.

He said Farley exhibited a child-like enthusiasm when he got a glimpse of the crowds of people who showed up at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Dearborn, where the wedding and reception took place.

"Hey Carl, take a look at all the people," Farley said.

Schell said a wedding consultant selected Nadeau's Brothers Formal Wear store out of a choice of six. The reasons why were the wedding was close to the store, the store had everything in stock, and it has been in business for 35 years.

Formal Affair and Brothers Formal Wear specialize in providing attire and accessories for weddings, proms, showers, and other formal events.

Other celebrity clients Nadeau has dealt with are Leonard Nimoy, and Bill Freehan, former catcher for the Detroit Tigers.

Greenfield Village celebrates emancipation Aug. 5, 6

African-American history comes to life with stories of courage and songs of freedom as Greenfield Village presents "A Celebration of Emancipation" on Aug. 5 and 6.

Highlighting Village structures and stories that explore the lives of African-American families, this special weekend focuses on the resourcefulness of African American men, women and children during times of slavery and freedom.

"All Americans are grateful for the freedom we enjoy, but for African-Americans, freedom has another meaning," said Dorita Smith, a member of the program planning team. "Emancipation celebrations have been an important tradition for more than a century among families, church groups and anywhere there's a sense of community."

Three original dramas created especially for performance at Greenfield Village will be presented at the sites that inspired the stories.

The hopes, dreams, and fears of enslaved African-Americans are movingly expressed in "Hester's Dilemma," by Ann Eskridge.

Children can also listen as a storyteller relates tales from African-American history, and enjoy hands on activities including making paper puppets.

"A Celebration of Emancipation" is part of Greenfield Village's Summer Festival, which features performances, music, and hands on activities.

Henry Ford Museum & Greenfield Village is in Dearborn, 12 miles west of downtown Detroit. Directional signs are posted along routes Interstate-75 and I-94, the Southfield Freeway (M-39), and Michigan Avenue (U.S. 12). Parking is free.

The Wright Cycle Shop at Greenfield Village has been called "the birthplace of aviation" because it was here that the Wrights conducted many experiments and constructed the world's first successful heavier-than-air manned aircraft. MCN Special Photo

Area seniors enjoy independent living

Senior citizens who want the independence of apartment living plus the security of a caring environment have an opportunity to have both at the Woods of Westland.

The Woods of Westland is an apartment complex for seniors, which offers independent living, and is designed for active older adults, who still like to live life to the fullest.

A large activities program includes cards and bingo almost every night. Four nights a week there are catered dinners plus pizza parties, pot lucks, and many entertaining speakers.

Last month Congresswoman Lynn Rivers spoke to residents and the Westland Fire Department is scheduled to make a presentation next month.

Health programs are made available to the tenants. There are hearing and eye exams once a month and a nurse visits once a month also, according to a spokeswoman for the complex.

The compound is nestled in trees, located on Joy Road, one mile west of Newburgh.

There are apartments avail-

The complex is fitted with an intercom entrance system, a solarium with wicker furniture and a library. The complex also features community areas and a beauty shop.

able with either one or two bedrooms, and each apartment has an emergency pull cord hooked up with Emergency Medical Service (EMS). There are optional programs which include meals or housekeeping.

The complex is fitted with an intercom entrance system, a solarium with wicker furniture and a library. The complex also features community areas and a beauty shop.

Transportation is available, and there is also elevator access, according to the spokeswoman.

1995 summer offerings of new movies arrives

As the temperatures hover in the 90s, there is more than one reason to go to the movies — not only can you view an entertaining film, but you can enjoy the cool comfort of the theater.

Among the popular films currently showing in metropolitan Detroit area theaters are:

Clueless, a romantic comedy about a Beverly Hills High School student who tries to arrange everyone else's romantic lives, but discovers that she may have completely misjudged her own. Alicia Silverstone stars, and will probably be seen in many more flicks to come. Great summer time escape, and a chance to learn a new Beverly Hills High vocabulary! Rated PG-13.

Operation Dumbo Drop, an action-adventure film about five Green Beret soldiers who transport an elephant to a village in Vietnam. It stars Ray Liotta and Danny Glover. Rated PG.

Waterworld, starring Kevin Costner, Jeanne Tripplehorn, Tina Majorino and Dennis Hopper in a post-apocalyptic sea adventure about a solitary hero who sets out with a beautiful woman and a mysterious little girl on a search for a new beginning. Hopper is up to his evils ways again in this film, and more sinister than ever.

Babe, a live-action comedy based on a children's book about a precocious pig. Rated G, of course.

Virtuosity, starring Denzel Washington in a futuristic thriller set in Los Angeles about an ex-cop with a tortured past who hunts a murderous computer-generated personality who has brought himself to life. Rated R.

The Net, starring Sandra Bullock and Dennis Miller. Bullock plays a lonely technogeek who accidentally discovers a top secret program that can hack into virtually any computer network.

The following films are still being shown at some theaters, and are destined for the video shops soon:

Casper, the friendly ghost

delights youngsters. Young Christina Ricci, who played in the Addams Family is befriended by Casper.

Species, starring Natasha Henstridge, Ben Kingsley and Forest Whitaker in a sci-fi thriller about a genetically engineered beast capable of assuming human form. Henstridge's character should provide men with a good reason to be careful about who they pick up in bars. Rated R.

Indian in the Cupboard, a fantasy adventure about a boy who discovers with a turn of a key that he can magically bring to life his three-inch toy Indian. Rated PG.

Beyond Rangoon, starring Patricia Arquette, as an American doctor who is stranded in crisis-torn Burma.

Crimson Tide, an action thriller aboard a nuclear submarine, featuring Gene Hackman, Denzel Washington and George Dzundza. Great acting by Hackman and Washington. Rated R.

Bridges of Madison County, featuring Meryl Streep and Clint Eastwood in the film version of the popular novel — said by some viewers to be better than the book.

Batman Forever, with Val Kilmer, Jim Carrey, Nichole Kidman, Tommy Lee Jones and Chris O'Donnell, the Caped Crusader is joined by Robin in this dynamic film.

Judge Dredd, a comic book crime fighter, is brought to the screen with Sylvester Stallone, Diane Lane and Joan Chen.

Pocahontas, full-length animated film relating the familiar John Smith and Pochanontas story. Not another Lion King, but worth a viewi*g. screen.

Apollo 13, starring Tom Hanks, Kevin Bacon, Gary Sinise and directed by Ron Howard. Drama based on the ill-fated NASA mission whose trip to the moon was interrupted by a deep space explosion.

Congo, with Dylan Walsh, Laura Linney and Tim Curry, is the story of a dimond prospecting expedition that runs into killer gorillas. Excitement enough to keep the interests of teens and twenties.

The Underneath, starring Peter Gallagher and Elisaeth Shue, a psychological thriller about seduction, betrayal and second chances.

Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, the superheroes leave the small screen for the big Top Dog an action-comedy about a tough cop and his K-9 partner, starring Chuck Norris. Rated PG-13.

Destiny Turns on the Radio, an offbeat saga about a bank robber who escapes from prison and returns to Las Vegas to reclaim his stolen fortune, starring Dylan McDermott, Nancy Travis and Quentin Tarantino. Rated R.

Village of the Damned, a remake of a 1960 classic, starring Christopher Reeve, Kristie Alley, Linda Kozlowski and Mark Hamill. Rated R.

While You Were Sleeping, a romantic comedy about a Chicago Transit worker who rescues the man of her dreams and, while he is in a coma, she is mistaken for his fiancée. Rated PG.

When we say we screen our doctors, it's not a slogan and it's not just some routine examination, either. This is a procedure we take very seriously. After all, your health is at stake here. So, before any doctors become Blue Care Network doctors, before they ever examine one single patient, they must first survive a very detailed examination themselves.

Here's what it takes. First, all doctors (personal care physicians and specialists) are reviewed against very specific written criteria. (Quality of care is what we're measuring here.) In addition, an on-site inspection is conducted by specially trained staff and results are reviewed by Blue Care Network doctors in the area.

Patient satisfaction surveys are conducted by a professional, independent research company. Here, we ask patients to evaluate their doctor's technical skills as well as the basic level of service and care.

And, Blue Care Network works with its personal care physicians to ensure that quality standards are met.

Finally, Blue Care Network itself is reviewed for quality by a national industry watchdog association.

Oh, and after all these standards have been met, the doctors selected have the pleasure of going through this process all over again every two years for as long as they're with us.

Now, that is a tall order to fill. But if we're going to take the guesswork out of selecting a doctor, we should try our hardest to provide you with a sizable list of quality personal care physicians and specialists. It's as simple as that.

Geake stated, "These funds will also assist in the rehabilitation of those who have become addicted and are headed for a future of repeat offenses. By helping these people now and ruining the drug trade in the area, we can keep these citizens out of jail."

Belleville volunteers aid trauma center

By RACHAEL LEWIS
MCN Special Writer

Earlier this month, the staff of J.B.'s Place and their patrons rolled up their sleeves and cleaned cars to raise funds for the University of Michigan Trauma Burn Center.

John Bota's staff, customers and neighboring businesses worked together to raise $1,070 for the trauma center.

"I've done fund raisers for the burn center in the past, and I decided it was time to do one again," said Bota, owner of the Belleville establishment.

Bota handed a check for $1,070 to Deborah Trombley, program assistant for the burn center program at a gathering of volunteers.

For Bota, the fund-raising effort was nothing new. He has hosted fund-raisers for many local charities and is the top contributor to the Belleville High School athletic department.

"Everyone pitched in. We got a great response from the community - a lot of support," Bota said. "And, we also got a lot of cooperation from the nearby businesses."

Participating in the fund-raiser were Todd Atchinson, Cyndi Darosa, Brad Howell, Jerry Jenkins, Carrie Ruble, Shelly Salemassi, Charles Wilson, Nicole Allen and Katie Polzen. Donations were given by Louise Leonard of Guys & Gals, Real Pizza, Belleville Barbecue and water for the car washing was provided by Brass Belle Restaurant.

Bota has also hosted fund-raising events for the Salvation Army, Goodfellow, the Lake Fest and the Belleville Band.

Knowing the critical need to help burn victims, Bota said he was pleased to have been able to sponsor a successful fund-raising event.

The Trauma Burn Center was originally founded in 1959 as the University of Michigan Burn Center - one of the first such centers in the United States.

It developed an international reputation for leadership in patient care and rehabilitation since its opening.

It became the Trauma Burn Center after adding the capability of caring for a wide variety of traumatic injuries, in addition to burns. The medical staff cares for people who suffer multiple injuries, and often life-threatening or limb-threatening injuries.

How quickly patients receive treatment can mean the difference between life and death or the chance of recovery, said a hospital spokesman. At the University of Michigan, medical specialists are available on-site 24 hours a day, and the trauma radio communications systems allows them to assemble the trauma team before the patient arrives.

Patients receive care from a team of specialized medical professionals, from admission through rehabilitation.

5 Simple Ways To Improve Your Retirement

Do you live alone? Is your house becoming a burden? Are you looking for a more active lifestyle?

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, there is a simple way to improve your retirement.

With over 300 residents, Henry Ford Village offers spacious apartments in a warm campus setting, on-site health care, casual and elegant dining options, transportation, shopping, banking, craft rooms, class rooms, an exercise room, a beauty salon, and much, much more. For less!

See for yourself! It's easy to learn about the Village. Just follow one or more of these steps:

1. Call for your free brochure

This informative color brochure describes the cost of living at Henry Ford Village and the many activities and services available. It also includes detailed floor plans of our affordable apartments.

2. Send for your free video

A 15-minute arm chair tour of Henry Ford

Village is available free of charge.

The video visits with residents in their apartments and shows you the many advantages of life care living; including the on-site medical center... the dining rooms... and the many activity areas which make Henry Ford Village Michigan's premier retirement community.

3. Schedule a group tour

Schedule a visit for you and your friends or family; or a church or social group for a tour of Henry Ford Village. You'll get a complete tour of this 35-acre community's facilities and amenities, and see first-hand an outstanding selection of homes.

4. Arrange a personal tour

If you'd like to visit Henry Ford Village all by yourself, we can certainly accommodate you. Goldie Edwards, our Admissions Coordinator will be happy to all your questions during a brief, low-key visit.

5. Drop by our Information Center

If you don't have much time, consider making a short trip to the Information Center at 15101 Ford Road. There, you can pick up literature or pose questions to our experienced staff. The Information Center is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

JILL JACKSON'S HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD ... Alfred, Lord Tennyson, Sir Thomas Malory, and all those others who have written of Arthur, Lancelot, and Guinevere must be spinning wherever they are over "First Knight," the newest version of the goings on in Camelot. In the movie starring Sean Connery as King Arthur, Julia Ormond as Guinevere, and Richard Gere as Sir Lancelot, King Arthur is killed off at the end so Lancelot and Guinevere can live together ever after, but not happily with Arthur on their consciences. Not that they physically kill him; one of the enemy does that, but mentally when he walks in inadvertently and finds his wife smooching up a storm with his First Knight. How she could have chosen Gere over Connery, who is simply gorgeous with long white hair and a beard, is a mystery to me, but that's what happens in the film which is one big battle for two hours and some 20-odd minutes.

BITS 'N' PIECES: Did ya remember that Armand Assante who stars as Rico with Sly Stallone in "Judge Dredd" made his screen debut in Stallone's "Paradise Alley"? ... Nicole Brown's sister, Denise, has made a domestic violence video with Kathleen Turner ... Still remembering Lana Turner? There are many who say even though they knew her, they "really didn't know her," if you get what I mean. Lana in her lifetime had few female friends ... Discovering Hugh Grant a couple weeks ago wasn't the only excitement on and around Sunset Boulevard. Lot of famous director faces standing around on the street while the Director's Guild was evacuated due to a bomb threat ... And in re that Grant fiasco, I won't even hazard a guess as to how much that "lady of the evening" is going to make on "telling it all" ... Postcard from Phyllis Diller saying, "You've heard Fly the Friendly Skies. How about Walk the Friendly Lawn." On the card from Phoenix, Ariz., a picture of a field of saguaro cacti ... Richard Gere and Sean Connery at the screening preem of "First Knight" sans all those tresses they sported in the film. Gere's hair was cropped short; Connery's wasn't there at all ... Betty White cuddled a huge snake during the Beastly Ball at the Los Angeles Zoo ... I love what Stanley Marcus, founder of Neiman-Marcus stores, told a group gathered in Hollywood. He said, "Growing older is something that happens to all of us, but feeling old is something we do to ourselves, or allow others to inflict on us" ... Denzel Washington is really up there in the big bucks. I see where he'll pull down $10 million to star in "Courage Under Fire" ... Latest update on Liz is she's doing even better than expected recuperating from her latest hip surgery. Talk about guts, that gal's got enough for six of us, and it doesn't hurt to have a young and virile husband ... Aside to Vera M. of Palm Springs, Calif.: Glad you are enjoying the old Clifton Webb "Mr. Belvedere," but, no, he was not English. He was born Webb Parmalee Hollenbeck in Indianapolis in 1891 ... Everyone thinks Tom Selleck is a Republican. Actually, he is a registered Independent ... Will be interesting to see how Pamela Anderson handles her enlarging tummy both off screen and on while filming "Baywatch." Of course, you know she and Tommy Lee are expecting ... Word is (and that's all it is at this writing) that Lauren Bacall could play Barbra Streisand's mother in "The Mirror Has Two Faces" to shoot in October ... George Clooney doesn't spend all his time acting and dating. He's on the Advisory Board of the Screen Actor's Guild Foundation and that takes some time and concentration ... Aside to Kristie V. of Salem, Ore.: You're right on the button. Ben Cross, who plays the villain Malagant in "First Knight," did star in "Chariots of Fire." He also appeared with Sean Connery in "A Bridge Too Far" ... And that other star who has been taking flirtatious flings had better take a lesson from Hugh Grant's indiscretion.

The Chopping Block by Philomena Corradeno

When you come right down to it, a fajita is a sandwich — meat and perhaps vegetables enrobed in a warm tortilla. Original fajitas were made not only to satisfy the hunger of the Tex-Mex border laborers but to use up skirt steak, an underutilized cut of beef that is tough but extremely flavorful.

It is almost impossible for the consumer to buy skirt today since fajitas have become so popular. In the authentic, the meat is marinated for several hours to tenderize it before grilling. But executive chef Patricia Williams uses flank in this recipe when she entertains at home.

BEEF FAJITAS WITH CHILI-LIME BUTTER

- 4 tablespoons butter, divided
- 2 cups thinly sliced onions
- 3 cups thinly sliced sweet red, green and yellow bell pepper
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- ¼ cup water
- 1 teaspoon salt, divided
- ½ teaspoon ground black pepper, divided
- 1 pound flank steak
- 8 6-inch flour tortillas
- 1 tablespoon chili powder
- 2 tablespoons lime juice

Preheat oven to 350F. In a large nonstick skillet over medium-high heat, melt 2 tablespoons butter. Add onions, bell peppers and garlic; cook, stirring frequently, until peppers are crisp-tender, about 3 minutes. Stir in water, ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper; bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer until vegetables are tender, about 5 minutes. Transfer vegetables to a bowl; cover and set aside. Wipe skillet clean. Cut steak across the grain* into ¼-inch thick diagonal slices; sprinkle with remaining ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. In the skillet over medium-high heat, melt 1 tablespoon butter; add half the steak; cook, stirring frequently, until done as desired, about 2 minutes for medium; remove to a bowl. Cook remaining meat using additional butter, if needed. Wipe skillet clean. Meanwhile, wrap tortillas in aluminum foil; place in oven until warm. In the skillet over medium-low heat, melt remaining 1 tablespoon butter. Stir in chili powder; cook, stirring constantly, until chili powder is fragrant, about 1 minute. Stir in reserved vegetable mixture; toss to coat; remove from heat. To serve, arrange equal amounts of steak and vegetables on each warm tortilla. Roll tortillas to enclose filling; serve immediately. Makes 4 servings.

*NOTE: For easy slicing place flank steak in freezer for 30 minutes.

NEW PRODUCT NEWS: Dannon's Double Delights, a container holding flavored low-fat yogurt in one compartment, fruit in a section and separately, a fresh-tasting fruit that can be mixed in or used as a topping. There are two vanilla yogurts, one with strawberry, one with peach and apricot; two cheesecake-flavored yogurt with cherry or strawberry; banana cream yogurt with strawberry; Bavarian cream with raspberry. The 6-ounce serving sells at about 79 cents.

THE UNITED STATES NAVAL ACADEMY: A Pictorial Celebration of 150 Years, by Gale Kohlhaugen & Ellen Heinbach (Abrams: $29.50). Just before the 1930 game, the Annapolis athletic director admonished the middle squad, "The Army-Navy game is the nearest goddamn thing to actual warfare we have in time of peace! Let's go to war!" Rivalry between cadets at the two senior service academies may continue after graduation.

Travelers warned to be careful of checks, cash

When gearing up for a summer getaway, travelers should ask themselves an important question: What is the best way to manage vacation spending money?

AAA Travel Agency officials say traveling with loads of cash is not wise.

"If lost or stolen, cash is irreplaceable," said AAA Travel Director Bill Best. "Also, flashing wads of bills may make a tourist an easy theft target."

Instead, he suggests vacationers consider a variety of payment methods—from travelers checks to credit cards—to ensure maximum convenience and security.

Most of the vacation funds should be in travelers checks, Best said. The agency recommends American Express Travelers Cheques since they are widely recognized and accepted like cash throughout the world. And unlike cash, if they're lost or stolen, they are easily replaced at thousands of American Express offices worldwide. It's vital to keep a set of travelers check serial numbers separate from the checks to order for them to be replaced.

The travelers checks have lots of other advantages. They are fee-free to AAA members at any branch office. In general, visitors also get a better exchange rate overseas when changing travelers checks rather than cash. And for those away from home a long time, mail can be sent in care of the American Express office wherever they are visiting. Also, American Express "Traveler's Cheques for Two" are the only travelers checks that allow two people to carry and use the same set of checks, letting them pursue separate vacation interests without sacrificing security.

AAA Travel Agency also recommends members use a credit card to cover unexpected or very large expenses incurred during vacation. Credit card purchases are exchanged at the interbank exchange rate, usually the best rate available for currency exchange. Also, credit charges are the easiest to challenge if services or merchandise purchased are unsatisfactory or incorrectly charged.

AAA offers its members VISA and MasterCard with low an no-fee options. AAA credit cards give special privileges to travelers, including travel agency monthly specials and easy cash advances. With the AAA Gold Credit Card, members also receive $250,000 in Free Travel Accident Insurance, no cost emergency medical/legal assistance and emergency trip assistance.

Finally, travelers should carry some cash in small bills to cover tips, taxi fares, telephones, and other miscellaneous small expenses.

Toll call savings offered

If you want to know how to save money on toll calls, answers are provided in a new booklet by a nationally recognized consumer affairs expert.

Samuel A. Simon, consumer affairs expert and author, has published a new consumer booklet for Michigan residents titled, "The Consumer's Guide to Making Local Toll Calls." The booklet is an easy-to-read, plain English explanation of how to save money and make smart choices as new competition enters the local telephone market in Michigan.

The booklet, free to consumers and businesses in Michigan is designed to help consumers:

- Understand the differences between local, zone, toll and long distance calls;
- Save money by picking a calling plan that best fits a consumer's individual needs; and

- Determine when a "deal" is really a "good deal."

"There is no single rule of thumb for saving money on your phone bill," Simon notes. "Whether you can save money on your toll calling will depend on whether you make toll calls, the size of your bill, the distance of the calls you make, and your overall calling pattern."

"If it sounds daunting, it is for most consumers," Simon points out. "As a result, many consumers and businesses may actually be overpaying as a result of inappropriate use of special access codes to 'dial around' their local telephone company."

"With the introduction of yet another form of telephone competition and growing numbers of letters to the Michigan Public Service Commission regarding charges for local toll calls, Ameritech saw the opportunity to help consumers make smart choices," said Simon.

Simon began his career as an attorney working with Ralph Nader in 1970. An articulate and passionate advocate for consumers, he has appeared recently on the Today Show, Day One, and CNN Saturday.

Consumers can receive Simon's new booklet, "A Consumer's Guide to Making Local Toll Calls," by calling toll-free (800) 440-LATA.

Die hard golfers poised for city title battles

Fellows Creek Golf Course is host to tourney

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Die-hard golfers refuse to allow the City Championship Golf Tournament to die.

They have come back, with vengeance.

"We have gotten inquiries and entries for this tournament right after the initial publicity," said Jeff - that's Jeff - and not John Rutter, who is serving on a committee of four for the 1995 championships. "We are continuing to look for those old golfers who participated in the last 30 or so tournaments."

"It is not late to sign up for the tournament," Rutter stressed.

The City Championship Golf Tournament will be staged the weekend of Aug. 5-6 at the Fellows Creek Golf Course, 2936 Lotz Road in Canton Township. (The 18-hole course is located east of the I-275 Expressway, a half-mile off of Michigan Ave., north on Lotz Road.

Competitors will play 18-holes the first day (Saturday) and return for the finals on Sunday.

Separate city championships will be staged for the cities of Wayne and Westland. Area golfers from Canton, Inkster, Romulus, Belleville, Van Buren, Sumpter are invited to compete.

Along with championship flights, there will be additional flight competition, however, the total entry of a particular city must justify setting up the additional flight.

Trophies will be awarded by the recreation departments to the first, second and third-place finishers in each of the flights, and an additional trophy will be presented to the individual low scorer (medalist) of the entire field.

Recreation officials note that the low five scorers from each of the cities are eligible to play on their city's team in the Michigan Parks and Recreation Department's state championship. The state finals are usually conducted sometime in mid-September in Battle Creek.

All other golfers will be considered alternates in order of their finish.

The City Championship Golf Tournament is open to all male and female amateur golfers who reside in a participating community. A senior flight, made up of golfers over 50, also will be organized for this tournament.

Tryouts are set for prep athletes

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

If you are the new kid on the block and plan to compete in athletics at your high school, you better check to find out when tryouts are scheduled in your favorite sport.

The Wayne Memorial High School boys soccer team and players have begun their conditioning practices this week and coaches Larry Brenner and Jacques Pinard have scheduled conditioning drills from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m. on Aug. 1 through 3 and from Aug. 7-10.

"We are meeting at the new soccer field at the high school," stated Brenner, "and we are urging players, because of the extremely hot weather conditions, to bring water with them."

Prospective players also will have to have a physical in order to compete in the program.

Those who plan to participate and need additional information are urged to contact Brenner at 810-486-1925 or Jacques Pinard at 313-729-1513.

School officials say players may obtain forms for physical examinations from the school offices.

In the meantime, Westland John Glenn golf coach Dan Burkta is seeking golfers for the 1995 Rocket team. Glenn is a member of the Western Lakes Athletic Conference and is expected to make a strong run for a divisional championship this year.

The Rockets will conduct an organizational meeting at 2 p.m. Aug. 17 in Room 183 and all prospective players are urged to attend this important meeting.

"Anyone interested in trying out for the team should attend this meeting," Burkta stressed.

Entering his 10th season as head coach, Burkta guided the young Rockets to fourth-place finish a year ago.

"We were a young team then," said the Rocket coach. "We have seven players back and I expect we should be a very much improved team this year."

Among the returnees are sophomore Craig Piscopink, Brian Bridges and Kevin Kossel.

First-year Glenn golfers who need further information may contact Burkta at 313-981-1752.

Mustang League champs

The White Sox dominated the Westland Youth Athletic Association 9-10-year-old division by winning the Mustang baseball title. The champs earned the title by virtue of a 10-1 overall record, then cruised through the post-season playoffs with a perfect 4-0 record to add the tournament crown to their overall season's accomplishments. Members of the team include: John Adam (front row, from left), Edward Johnson, Matthew Gunn, Matthew Kruczynski and Scott German; manager Charles Shackelford, Teddy Vantoll, Seth Baldwin, Andrew Shackelford, Alex Jachym, and coach John Bradford. Dolphins 2nd-best at meet

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

They may have lacked the depth and the experience of a veteran Dearborn swim club, but the Wayne Dolphins managed to return home with the second-place trophy from the Downriver Championships hosted by Park Colony.

"Our swimmers looked good," said Dolphin coach Jim McPartlin. "These kids are trying hard, and the results are showing their efforts."

Dearborn, with a total of 900 team points, swam away with the first-place trophy. The Dolphins surfaced second with 785 for their second place, while Wyandotte was third (667), followed by Flat Rock (393).

Because of the number of teams that accepted the offer to compete in the invitational, the field was broken down into three divisions: Red, White and Blue. The Dolphins competed in the Red Division, according to McPartlin.

The Dolphins had one gold medalist in Tim Nesmith, who covered the 25-yard backstroke in 33.49 for his first-place medal.

John Smoes, who touched in fifth for the backstroke, and also had a fourth-place finish in the freestyle, along with teammate Jared Ruark, who was second in the backstroke and third in the freestyle, also stood out for the Dolphins.

group, Dennis Hermatz led the pack as he qualified for the championships in the backstroke and the freestyle. He finished with fifth and sixth-place medals in each of the events.

In the meantime, Heather Quinn touched in seventh for the butterfly and also was clocked in the ninth-best time for the 25-yard freestyle. Kathy Pardee turned in with a silver medal for her performance in the 50-yard backstroke, and she was also third in the 50-yard freestyle.

Cori Roland provided the Dolphins with a seventh in the backstroke and a ninth in the backstroke.

Josh Robb was third and sixth in the butterfly and the breaststroke, and Justin Smoes finished second and third in the breaststroke and the backstroke.

The Dolphins also received an outstanding effort from Jeff Anderson who turned in with a fifth place in the breaststroke and an eighth-place ribbon in the freestyle.

In the girls' 11-12 division, Kristine McCahill picked up a pair of third place medals for her performances in the 100-yard individual medal and in the 50-yard freestyle. Teammate Athena Dzlengelski was fourth in the breaststroke and 10th in the individual medley.

Other outstanding performances were turned in by Jimmy McPartlin - the coach's son - who had the second-best time for the 50-yard butterfly and the fifth best time for the 50-yard freestyle.

Jill McPartlin - the coach's daughter - was sixth in the 100-yard butterfly and Andrea McCahill was eighth in the 50-yard freestyle.

New rules

'Trash talk' may be on way out

It's hard to believe that the 1995 high school fall sports season will begin Aug. 14.

But believe it.

Also believe that the teams and coaches will be playing under some new rules, according to the Michigan High School Athletic Association, the august body that governs such things in the state of Michigan.

And "trash talk" on the basketball court may become a thing of the past, if the officials call it closely.

Basketball will have major changes - so area coaches better take note. Are you listening coaches - Chuck Henry, Mike Schuette, Mike Garland, Ron Tarrant - or are you still on vacation?

Here we go.

Three of those rules will influence the end of games.

First, bonus free throws will continue to begin with the seventh-team foul, but on the tenth-team foul of a half, the opposing team will now shoot two shots instead of a one-on-one. The rule is the same as in college basketball, folks.

Secondly, no field goal try will be counted if there is three-tenths of a second remaining or less. A tip-in off an inbounds pass would be permitted. This rule doesn't apply if the clock doesn't display tenths of a second.

Thirdly, no free throws will be attempted at the conclusion of regulation play if the free throws would not affect the outcome of the game.

In addition to these changes in basketball, rules were added to allow an airborne defender from the frontcourt to land in the backcourt. In an effort to crack down on unsportsmanlike play, taunting rules have been expanded; leaving a bench area during a fight will result in a disqualification and objectionable visible body markings will not be permitted.

In football, the two-minute drill has been given a big boost. The most visible rules change on the gridiron will allow a quarterback to spike the ball immediately after the snap from center to stop the clock.

One major rule change in soccer does the opposite of those in football and basketball, it influences the start of contests. Previously a team had to start with 11 players on the field, but now a team may start a game with seven uniformed players.

Once a game is in process, no team may continue with less than seven players. Another major change will allow players wearing casts, splints or body braces made of a hard substance to play if they are covered with at least one-half inch of approved padding.

In addition, a medical release for the injured player signed by a licensed physician must be available at the game site.

Attention spikers, tennis players

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The cities of Inkster and Westland are still looking for players for their tennis and fall softball and volleyball leagues.

Inkster will host its 17th annual Open Tennis Tournament on three days, beginning Aug. 17 at the municipal tennis courts located next to the Inkster Recreation Complex, on Middlebelt Road, just north of Michigan Ave.

"We are still accepting players for our tourney," said

Portia Dickson, tennis tournament coordinator. "We have had excellent response and usually we get about 100 players in this tournament."

The preliminary round of the tournament is scheduled for 4 p.m. Aug. 17, while the championships will be staged on Aug. 19. There will be age-group divisional championships as follows: Youth singles (17 and under) $4 registration fee; Youth singles (14 and under) - $4; Youth doubles (17 and under) - $8 per person.

Competition also will be staged for men's singles ($8 entry fee); Men's singles (35 and over); Men's singles (45 and over); women's singles ($8) and women's doubles ($16 per team).

The tournament will also decide championships for men's doubles (35 and over); masters doubles (45 and over) and adult mixed doubles.

For further information about the tournament, please contact tournament director Dickson at 313-728-7530.

In the meantime, Westland parks and recreation officials

La-De-Dah baseball

Old-style teams take to playing fields

By RACHAEL LEWIS
MCN Staff Writer

Baseball fans who long for the "good old days" get their wish when the historic Lah-De-Dahs Base Ball Club of Greenfield Village take to the field.

The Detroit Tigers, sponsors of the Lah-De-Dahs summer season at Greenfield Village, played host to the re-created 1880s team in a pre-game show last night at Tiger Stadium.

"We're happy to have this opportunity to share a moment from sports history with Tiger fans," said Jim Johnson, Greenfield Village program planner, and Lah-De-Dahs team member. "The Lah-De-Dahs have enjoyed playing other historic baseball teams for the past three seasons."

In keeping with 19th-century tradition, rules for the game will be discussed with the opposition before the players take the field.

For example:

- There is no bunting, stealing of bases, sliding, leading off bases or spitting

- Balls and strikes are not called.
- Foul ticks are not considered strikes
- All disputed calls are arbitrated only by the team captains and the umpire.

"Back in the 19th century, baseball was an evolving game and the rules could vary from one team to the next," Johnson said. "Our game at Tiger Stadium will be a version of Town Ball, which was one of the popular early forms."

The Lah-De-Dahs also have their own terminology: a pitcher is a hurler or thrower; fans are cranks, a game is a match; aces or tallies are runs and "leg it" means run to base.

The MHSSA also released the complete list of fall championship dates.

The girls basketball district tournaments will be staged from Nov. 13-18 and the regionals are scheduled for Nov.

Visitors to Greenfield Village can also see the Lah-De-Dahs play other historic teams on selected Sundays and other days through Labor Day:

- 12:30 p.m. Aug. 6, Greenfield Village versus the Sycamore Grasshoppers from Ohio
- 12:30 p.m. Aug. 19 (Saturday),
- 12:30 p.m. Aug. 27, Greenfield Village versus Ohio Village Muffins from Columbus.
- 12:30 p.m. Sept. 4 (Monday) Greenfield Village match of Town Ball on the Village Green

For Greenfield Village visitor information, call 313-271-1976.

20-22 while the finals will be held Nov. 28-30, Dec. 1-2.

The pre-regionals for football is set for Nov. 3 or Nov. 4, and the regional competition will get under way on Nov. 10 or 11. The state semifinals will be staged Nov. 18 and the state championships will be decided Nov. 24-25 in the Pontiac Silverdome.

Wayne Baseball Association invites residents to event

The Wayne Baseball Association and Jeff Auer invite area residents to the 9th Annual Wayne Baseball Association Late Summer Classic Baseball tournament Aug. 3-6.

The event will take place at Walz Field, Forest Park and Leonard J. Anderson Field in Wayne.

The Tournament is for players 14 years old and younger. Each team is guaranteed at least four games, and it is a round robin format.

There will be full concessions available at most fields. Residents are encouraged to attend the Tournament for the last time of this baseball season.

Special Olympics takes to fields

By HEATHER NEEDHAM

Special Olympians from across Michigan tested their softball and golf skills over the weekend in the 1995 Summer Sports Classic.

The events took place at Fellows Creek Golf Club, 2936 Lotz Road and Canton Softball Center, 46555 Michigan Avenue on Friday July 28, and Saturday July 29.

The event attracted 53 softball teams, 60 athletes competing in softball skills, 11 nine-hole course golfers, 40 golfers competing in individual skills, and 24 unified golf partners.

Unified sports is an innovative program that pairs an equal number of athletes with and without mental impairments on the same team to promote friendship and acceptance on and off the playing field, according to a Special Olympics spokesperson.

Friday's rain delayed the golf activities by about an hour, but spirits remained high despite the heat and humidity which followed.

John Giuliani, a MSO athlete from Lansing competed in the golf skills competition and said he had fun competing in the skills competition. Skills included pitching, driving, chipping, and short and long putts.

The softball teams were rated so that all players were on equal ground, according to Mike Beals, co-chair of the tournament.

Beals said 1995's softball event was the biggest ever.

"We want to make sure everyone has a fair chance," Beals said.

Beals said the rainy weather was a blessing in disguise for the softball practice, because the rain came when the players were ready for a break.

Some supporters of the two-day event included AT&T, Henderson Glass Inc., UPS, and UAW Hall 735, which provided its hall to use for a dance. Henry Ford Health System provided an air conditioned medical service semi truck for emergencies.

are seeking teams for their fall softball leagues.

The season will begin Sept. 5, and will run through to Oct. 26. Competition will be held on Monday/Wednesday or Tuesday/Thursday with seven weeks of doubleheaders also planned.

Registration will be conducted from Aug. 7-23 at the Bailey Recreation Center at 36651 Ford Road, (behind the City Hall).

For further information, please contact the recreation department at 722-7620.

Westland Parks and Recreation Department also is planning a women's indoor volleyball league and is seeking teams and players for the league.

Recreation officials stress that players must sign up in person if they wish to play in the league. There is a Aug. 18 deadline to register. The season will run from Sept. 8 until Nov. 30 and there will be three levels of competition: Class A (highly competitive), Class B (moderately competitive), and Class C (recreational).

You can also contact the recreation offices at 722-7620 for further information.

Organizers stress that only bona fide residents may represent a city on a team that will compete at state.

There is a $60 entry fee which covers greens' fees for the two-days and also pays for the trophies.

To enter, golfers are requested to fill out the entry blank that accompanies this story. Mail it, along with your check of $60, to the City of Wayne, Parks and Recreation, 4635 Howe Road, Wayne, Michigan, 48184. Please make checks payable to the City of Wayne.

Along with Rutter, serving on the City Championship Golf Rules Committee are: Gary Clark, Mark Morton, and Robert Kosowski, of the Westland Municipal Golf Course.

For further information about the golf tournament please contact Jeff Rutter at 721-7400 or Michigan Community Newspapers' staff writer Tom Mooradian. Mooradian may be reached at 729-4000.

Belleville team shows 'All-Star' recognition

When the Belleville All Stars took to the field for the district tournament, the 9- and 10-year-old baseball players showed the opposition the meaning of their name.

They defeated the Adrian Nationals, 11-0, in the first game, then beat Jackson Southwest, 15-4, and Jackson North, 8-2, in the following two games.

For an encore, they downed Columbia, 13-3, and 15-14.

Pitchers for all five games were Michael Davenport and David Majewski plus Billy Zantop on the mound.

Leading the team in hitting were Derek Brooks and Joey Haggerman.

Other team members were Jack Busche, Josh Wisniewski, Kris Kukola, David Frey, Brad Pordondek, Josh Ivan, Nick Jablonski, Dave Majewski and Charles Watson.

Youth in need of scholarship for future educational trip

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

Seventeen-year-old Paul Olney refuses to give up on life, even though he feels it has given him some hard knocks.

Paul's father left home when he was only two years of age. About a decade later, Paul himself was removed from his home by Protective Services for about a year.

Paul had a few minor brushes with the law while outside his home, but luckily escaped being charged and thus never developed a juvenile record.

After returning home at age 15, Paul experienced more family problems but decided to stick it out until he reached the age of 17.

At that time, Paul moved in with friends as his family relations became strained. Remarkably since moving out, he admits, his relationship with his mother has improved.

Romulus Police Youth Officer Rose Cooper feels Paul could easily have fallen through the cracks in society's safety net in past years, by committing crimes or joining a youth gang to get attention.

But instead, Paul's dogged determination to succeed got him involved in school activities, including the Romulus Eagles football team, and lead to his getting a job.

Since he wasn't living at home, Cooper said, Paul felt he needed extra money to survive. But after working long hours, he found his school work beginning to suffer.

Unlike many youth of his age, Paul quit his job (not school) and decided to go to summer school to earn the needed credits to graduate.

Recently Cooper met Paul when he got involved in a Romulus High School student project with the Romulus Police Department, in which the classmates painted over gang graffiti about town.

Cooper proudly states that she is quite impressed with Paul's battle against heavy odds and speaks out on his behalf every chance that she gets.

Paul recently learned about the Student Travel Service Foundation, which arranges for students to travel abroad and live in different cultures, while attending schools overseas.

Paul passed the foundation's extensive screening for overseas applicants, STS Foundation area representative Mark Przygocki reported. The screening checks include investigations into his character, citizenship, adaptability and grade level.

Paul now dreams of entering schools in Sweden for his 13th year in upper secondary schools, which will provide him with college credits.

He has been able to scrape together $500 from his past earnings to put down as a deposit on his dream.

But now Paul is facing a very quick deadline of next Tuesday in which he needs to raise $4,500 for the exchange program.

Cooper said that based on her five years experience as a youth officer, she feels comfortable joining Paul in his appeal for travel study funds.

She said checks should be made out to S.T.S. Foundation and dropped off at the Romulus Police Headquarters in care of Cooper.

Cooper reminds the public that if Paul does not obtain his needed $4,500 by next Tuesday, he will have to cancel his plans to travel to Sweden this fall.

In addition, Cooper reveals that S.T.S. Foundation is in need for local host families. The public can obtain additional information by calling Mark Przygocki at 313-291-9260.

Wheeling around Police begin Pedal Patrol program

By AL POST
MCN Staff Writer

In response to the constant cry for increased communication and more visibility of local police officers, five veteran Romulus policemen on now on stepped up bike patrols within the city.

The specially trained officers, usually working in pairs, have been assigned to summer and fall bike duty to upgrade neighborhood patrols and to increase communication with local residents.

Police Capt. Eric Painter said the five officers began their new duty cycles early in July and really proved their effectiveness at the crowded July 4th festivities at Elmer Johnson Park.

The officers include John Leacher, Terry Balewski, Terry Cox, Dwayne DeCaires and Matt Robertson.

The city purchased three new Raleigh Police Mountain Bikes for the team and local Union 76 Service Station owner Yasel M. Berry of Middlebelt Road donated a Topanga Diamond Back bike to the program.

The bikes that are constructed to fit the physical size of the police rider are made also to handle rough urban or rural road conditions and are equipped with headlights, red and blue flashing police emergency lights and water bottles.

"These patrols (usually two officers acting as a team) work adjustable hours, some even on midnight shifts," Painter said.

They are assigned normal patrols, as well as residential areas where they can easily converse with the citizens and even have their photos taken with the public when requested, he said.

Each officer undergoes an official International Police Mountain Bike Association training course that is called "quiet, cost efficient and amazingly effective."

Bike mounted officers are often able to approach suspects virtually unnoticed, Painter said, and are especially effective in city park situations such as the recent fireworks celebration where thousands were on hand at Elmer Johnson Park.

Officers are also trained to be able to use their bikes as defensive tools in the case of an attack.

Painter is hoping the men can continue using their bikes as late as October or November, depending on local weather conditions.

Evil do-er Thief grabs canister donations

By RACHEL LEWIS
MCN Special Writer

While area residents and businesses are working to help cystic fibrosis patient Nathen Estermyer collect money for a double-lung transplant, an unscrupulous individual took money from one of the collection canisters.

The youth has been accepted as a candidate for a double-lung transplant, which will cost approximately $200,000. Insurance will cover some, but not all, of the costs.

Canisters have been placed in local businesses and it was reported that a man went into a store and said he was collecting for Estermyer and then emptied the canister.

Then at that point, with customers looking on, he purchased something with the money he took out of the canister.

Family members and friends of the youth urge everyone to check for identification of anyone "collecting" for Nathen Estermyer.

If you see someone collecting and you have doubts, we would appreciate if you contact us at 461-6484 to verify that person has permission, said a spokesman for the Friends of Nathen Estermyer Transplant Fund. "We are taking extra measures to ensure that the money you are donating is going to the proper fund and being used for Nathen's expenses with the transplant and appreciate your help," said a spokesperson. "Nathen is feeling quite well. He has had some problems but his health and attitude is good. The Estermyers appreciate all of the interest, concerns and love that the community is showing."

Editor's note: A portion of the subscription price of the Belleville Enterprise is being donated to Nathen Estermyer through a special drive sponsored by Michigan Community Newspapers.

Self-auditing of hazards proposed

Encouraging businesses to take care of their waste disposal problems during a moratorium is being proposed by State Senator Loren Bennett.

"I'd like to see businesses conduct self-audits to determine if they have any pollution problems," Bennett said. "During the moratorium, they would not be subject to fines or penalties."

Currently, he said, businesses owners and managers fear bringing information to the attention of regulating agencies because of fines and penalties that could be levied.

Bennett said the focus should be on eliminating pollutants from the environment, not on penalizing those who find them.

"I would like to see an environment created whereby businesses would feel free to contact regulating agencies to ask questions about products they use or the disposal of wastes," Bennett said. "I believe a moratorium would create that atmosphere."

New rules proposed for waste control

Instead of 83 separate solid waste plans for the 83 Michigan counties, the Department of Natural Resources has proposed five or six regions.

While it seems to be a positive move, State Senator Loren Bennett, R-Canton, sees it as another level of government at an added cost.

"I'd argue for free-market enterprise to handle solid waste," Bennett said. "The government has not been efficient in handling big programs like this."

One of the problems with the current system is that refuse must be brought to the landfill named in the county agreement, whether or not it is the most efficient one available, Bennett said.

Bennett noted that one waste carrier is required to deposit its collections at a landfill site that has already been cited for leaking.

"There also is a movement on the federal level to put up boundaries to stop waste from coming across from another state," Bennett said. "One thing that we must remember is that Wayne County imports waste from Canada."

Agency splits Environment, sports under separate heads

What was once the state Department of Natural Resources will become two agencies -- one concerned with issues of hunting, fishing and parks, and the other focused on environmental quality.

The proposal from Gov. John Engler was termed a "good step" by State Senator Loren Bennett, R-Canton.

The legislature has 60 days to disapprove after Engler issues his executive order next week. If no action is taken, the order stands.

Roland Harmes will continue to direct the Department of Natural Resources, and his deputy, Russell Harding, will oversee the Department of Environmental Quality.

"There has been criticism from sportsmen that the DNR has not focused enough on the issues of hunting and fishing, and that its energies were siphoned off by environmental issues," said Bennett. "On the other hand, individuals and firms applying for permits and licenses complained that they were not receiving them in a timely or consistent manner from the agency."

The DNR has come under fire for inconsistencies in its environmental policies.

"In the past, if you had called five offices, you may have gotten five different answers," said Bennett. "Improvements have been made in the last year to year and one-half, and those improvements have been steps in the right direction."

Bennett noted that those who deal with the DNR want the agency to set the rules, make them consistent and provide the necessary information to those who seek licenses or permits.

"They are saying, 'give us certainty.' That is what those who deal with the DNR want," said Bennett during a recent visit in Wayne.

According to some sportsmen, the division into two agencies should allow the DNR to focus more on conservation issues, such as poaching. Supporters of the proposal say that the division will allow the new agencies to concentrate more closely on their core missions. In addition, disagreements about fish and game license fees being diverted to the environmental bureaucracy can be eliminated.

1995 Jeep Sport brings out fun

By JUSTIN WILCOX
MCN Automotive Writer

Mud flies when you are having fun!

Sounds like a great bumper sticker to me, especially when it's on the 1995 Jeep Cherokee Sport. The 1995 Sport is a throwback to the '80s that has landed in the '90s.

With its boxy styling and Spartan interior, the Sport is a budget minded buyer's answer to the upscale Grand Cherokee. What the Sport may lack in up-to-date styling it makes up for with its fun to drive personality.

While slogging through the muck you can expect to get 14 mpg in the city and 19 mpg on the highway. These are poor numbers when compared to other family haulers that don't possess the ability to go where no man has gone before.

The Sport has power to slog through the mud or tackle rush hour traffic. The 4.0 L V6 pumps out 190 horsepower and accelerated the Sport to 60 mph in about 10 seconds.

At an as tested price of $23,848 the Cherokee Sport comes with Select-Trac part time shift on the fly 4WD system, skid plates, a heavy duty radiator, power windows and locks 4-wheel anti-lock brakes, keyless entry, cruise control, fog lamps, an AM/FM cassette radio and air conditioning.

Expect to pay at least $2,000 more for a comparably equipped Chevy Blazer and nearly $5,000 for a Ford Explorer.

The only real downside that the Cherokee Sport has is the fact that the spare tire is put inside, greatly limiting the interior space that may otherwise be used to haul cargo.

The Cherokee Sport accelerates briskly making merging onto the highway a breeze. This is a trait that is not shared by Ford's Explorer, which tends to move more like a snail, rather than a jack rabbit.

The Sport is well suited for work as well as play. It offers a lot to many different people. It can be a grocery and kid hauler as well as transportation to your favorite ski resort.

It is now the "IN" thing to drive to the office and to the golf course. In some cases Jeep has stole customers who used to drive sedans like BMW or Infiniti.

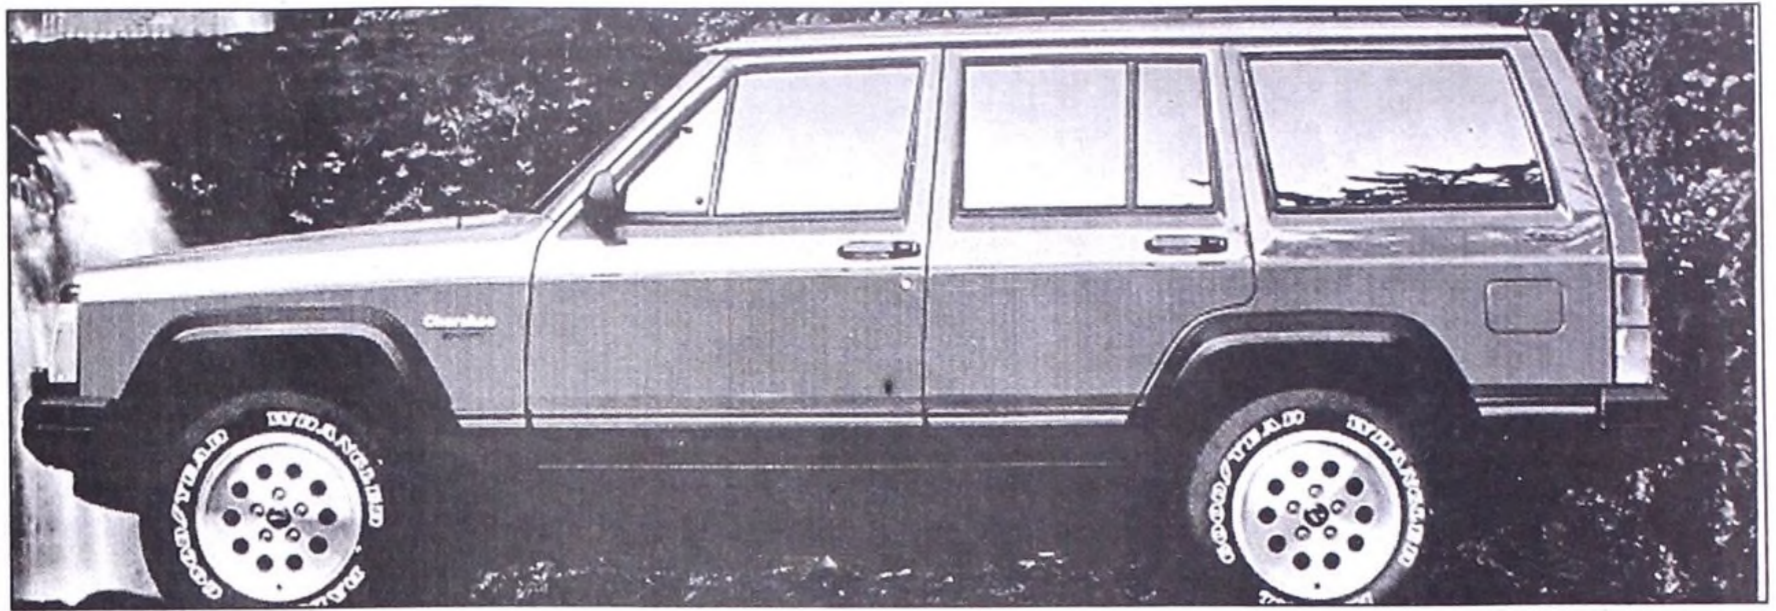

Why you ask? Because it is rugged enough to go anywhere with confidence even if you do not ever engage its 4WD system.

For me, this is one of the greatest vehicles on the road. I can plow through the snow or mud, carry my mountain bike or skis and carry four of my friends with power confidence that nothing this side of a Mack truck will stop our forward momentum.

So if you want to let the mud fly patent my bumper sticker idea and head down to your local Jeep dealership and pick yourself up the Cherokee Sport.

I guarantee that it will put a smile on your face.

1996 North American Auto Show format prepared

Official dates for the 1996 North American International Auto Show have been scheduled by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association.

The schedule for the 1996 North American International Auto Show, Detroit's eighth such international show, was announced by show co-chairmen James Tellier and George Gorno as follows:

Press Days will begin Jan. 2 and continue through Jan. 5. More than 3,000 new vehicles have been introduced in the show's first seven years. A total of 35 manufacturer press conferences are expected during the three full days of press conferences and unveilings. A total of 4,408 media representing 45 countries attended the 1995 NAIAS, and an equal number or more are expected for the 1996 event.

Supplier Preview Days will be held 5:30 to 10:30 p.m. Jan. 4 and continue from 7 a.m. until 1 p.m. Jan. 5.

Staying open for the Dr. Martin Luther King holiday on Monday provides one more opportunity to see what promises to be another outstanding show.

- Rod Alberts

Preview attendance has been capped at 10,000 during Supplier Preview Days.

From 6 to 9 p.m. Jan. 5, a Charity Preview is slated. The 1995 NAIAS black tie Charity Preview drew over 13,500 guests and raised in excess of $1.6 million for ten local children's charities last year.

The public showing will open on Saturday morning, Jan. 6, and continue through the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday on Jan. 15. Attendance during the public days of the 1995 NAIAS reached a record of 693,569, including a single day record 135,210 on Saturday of closing weekend.

"Staying open for the Dr. Martin Luther King holiday on Monday provides one more opportunity to see what promises to be another outstanding show", said NAIAS executive director Rod Alberts.

Detroit's NAIAS is considered one of the five major international auto shows with Geneva, Paris, Frankfurt and Tokyo.

Recipes perk up summer cooking

Summertime is a great time to try out new recipes. It's time to treat the taste buds with something new and different, and to "spice up" the meals and snacks.

Here are several new ones from the pages of the Huron Valley Conservation Association cookbook to try out in the kitchen or on the grill:

Dawnene Buckner's Tortilla Rolls

2 packages cream cheese, 1 (8 oz.) container sour cream, 1 small can chilies, drained, 1 small can chopped olives, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon minced onions, dash of soy sauce, 1 package of large flour tortillas.

Mix ingredients together; spread 2 tablespoons of mixture over a tortilla. Roll tightly; refrigerate overnight. Cut into small pieces; serve with salsa.

Kathy Darnell's

Sweet and Spicy BBQ Ribs
4 lb. pork spareribs; 1/2 cup chili sauce; 1/2 cup Hiosin sauce; 1/4 cup packed brown sugar; 3/4 teaspoon ground allspice; 1/2 teaspoon hot pepper sauce; 4 medium size ripe peaches; 2 tablespoons peach preserves; lemon leaves for garnish.

About 2 hours before serving or a day ahead: Cut ribs into 2 portions. In 8 quart saucepan over high heat, heat ribs and water to cover to boiling. Cover and simmer on low 1 hour. Remove ribs to platter. If not serving right away, cover and refrigerate about 1 hour before serving.

Prepare outdoor grill. Meanwhile, mix chili sauce, Hiosin sauce, sugar, allspice, and hot pepper sauce. Cook ribs on grill over medium heat 15 to 20 minutes to heat through, turning ribs often and brushing with sauce frequently during last 10 minutes.

Cut each peach in half; discard pits. Grill peach halves with ribs, turning and brushing with preserves until hot and browned, about 5 minutes. Arrange ribs and peaches on a platter with lemon leaves. Makes 5 servings.

Max Barber's

Layered Black Bean Dip
1 (15 oz.) can black beans, rinsed and drained; 1 (4-1/2 oz.) can black chopped ripe olives, drained; 1 small onion chopped finely; 1 clove garlic chopped; 2 tablespoons vegetable oil; 2 tablespoons lime juice; 1/4 tsp. salt; 1/2 tsp. crushed red pepper; 1/4 tsp. ground cumin; 1/8 tsp. pepper; 1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese, softened; 2 hard cooked eggs, peeled and chopped; 2 green onions sliced; 1 pkg. tortilla chips.

Mix beans, olives, onion, garlic, oil, lime juice, salt, red pepper, cumin, and pepper. Cover and refrigerate 2 hours. Spread cream cheese on bottom of serving plate. Spoon bean mixture evenly over cream cheese. Arrange eggs on bean mixture in ring around edge of plate; sprinkle with onion. Serve with tortilla chips. Makes 8 servings.

Area businessman hosts fund-raiser for the blind

By MARGO DEWEY
MCN News Editor

A local businessman has decided to organize a Swap Meet benefit to assist the Penrickton Center for the Blind Children.

Autoline owner Ron Siedlak is inviting area residents to his establishment at 33073 Michigan Ave. in Wayne Aug. 13 for a day of fun.

"This is something our club has been doing for 16 years," said Siedlak. "I'm enhancing the donation we make to Penrickton by having a second show here in Wayne. We also have one in Taylor. It's being presented by Autoline and American Most Wanted."

All proceeds from the event will go to the Penrickton Center. Approximately 125 cars are expected to arrive at the Swap Meet. Registration begins at 8 a.m. Trophies will be presented at 3 p.m.

The event will include a live disc jockey for entertainment,

Awards will be given to the top 10 streetrods, top 10 street machines, top 10 trucks, top 10 prostreet, best of show, best engine, best paint, best detail and best interior.

door prizes and a 50/50 drawing.

"Awards will be given to the top 10 streetrods, top 10 street machines, top 10 trucks, top 10 prostreet, best of show, best engine, best paint, best detail and best interior," said Siedlak. "I joined the club a little over 10 years ago."

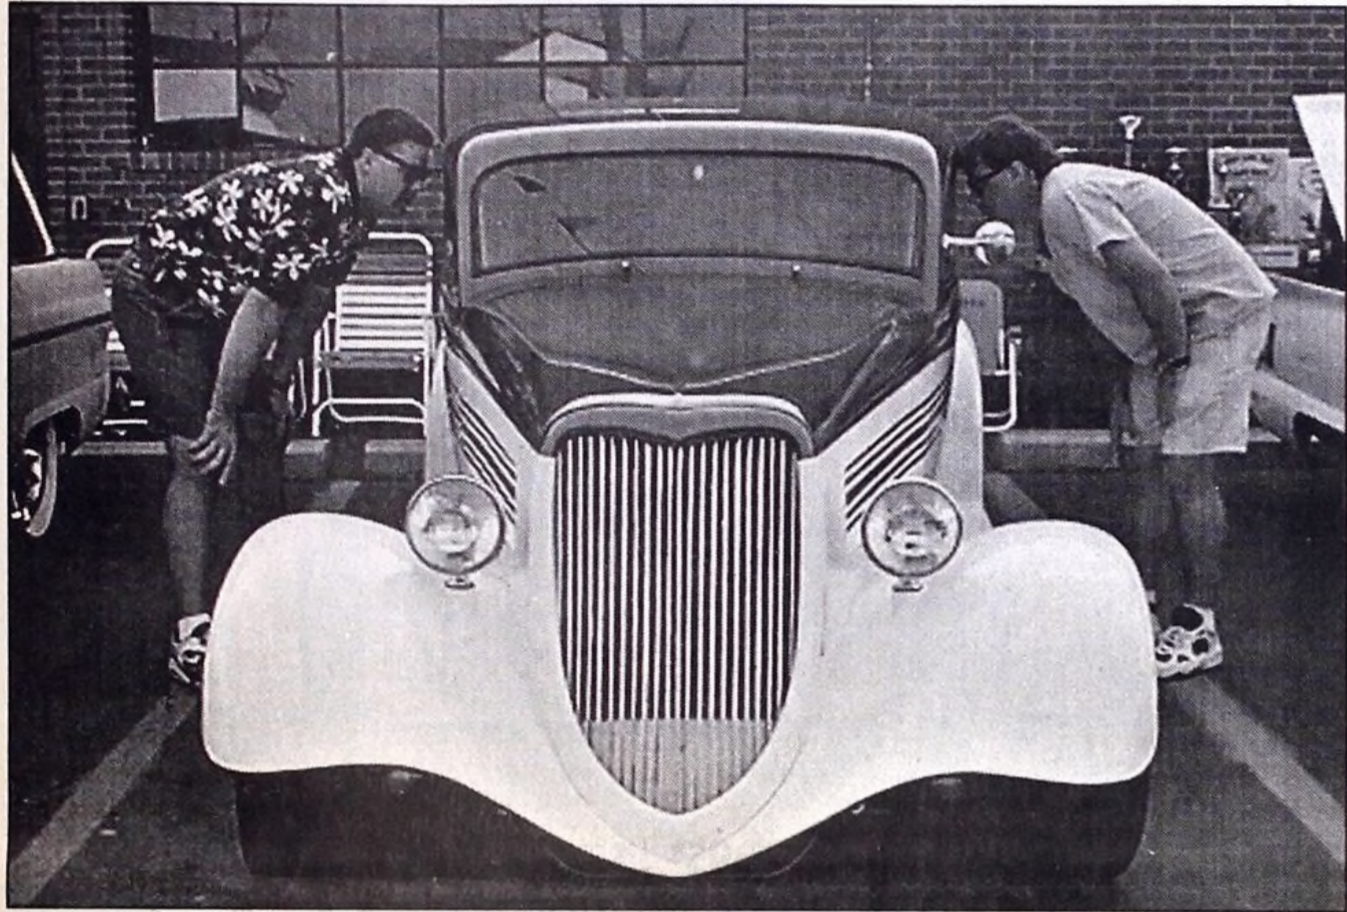

"It's a great club because it's geared to helping charitable organizations," Siedlak said the Swap Meet group is a Taylor-based club where the main goal for members is to help others.

"I've been very fortunate in my life, and I just want to give something back to the community," Siedlak said. "I still have my show in Taylor. This one will be the first in Wayne."

Siedlak hopes to gather $4,000 from the event for the blind children.

Pre-registration cost is $10 or $15 at the gate. For more information on attending the benefit contact Siedlak at 722-2233.

Cars of stars

Meadow Brook Hall hosts 1995 Concours d'Elegance event

On Sunday, Meadow Brook Hall, in Rochester, will be the host of this year's Concours d'Elegance. More than 20 automobiles by Mercedes Benz, Horsch, BMW, and Adler will be shown along with over 250 other classic cars.

The 17th annual event includes one of the finest automotive fine art shows and a showing of haute couture fashions, matched by the Somerset Collection, to some of the award winning cars as they pass the review stand. This is a unique recreation of the original French Concours.

Among the classic automobiles displayed will be the largest collection of unique hand-built Morgans even seen at a car show of its kind. More than 24 vintage Morgans will be on view, half of which are owned by Michigan residents.

1937 Mercedes-Benz 540K Special Roadster

English sportscar, Morgan

The Morgan has been dubbed the "first and last of the real sports cars."

Also being displayed are former film star greats Clark Cable's 1936 Duesenberg SSJ Speedster and George Raft's 1930 Auburn.

A very special feature among these classic automobiles, is a 1930 Mercedes Benz SSK, also known as the Count Trossi Mercedes. The memory of the Italian Count is indelible in the very spirit of the car; its remarkable physical presence the result of his own romantic vision. Cloaked in black, its elegance is endowed with a sort of irreverence.

The automobile is now owned by Ralph Lauren, and was restored in 1992 by Paul Russell Company of Essex, Mass. Prior to its restoration, Chassis 36038 ran with the 7020 cc supercharged inline-6 standard in all of the SSKs. The Trossi SSK is unique in that it is now powered by a 7069 cc engine with domed racing pistons.

Count Trossi probably would have approved of the modifications. It was his relentless pursuit of perfection, after all, which wrought what is called "the most beautiful car in the world" in the first place.

Other autos highlighted at the Concours d'Elegance include, the 1937 Mercedes-Benz 540K Special Roadster. This car is among the most valuable and most flamboyant of the pre-war Mercedes Benz autos. It was introduced at the 1936 Berlin Auto Show, and was touted as the fastest production automobiles in the world. A 1936 Duesenberg SSJ Bobtailed Speedster, often photographed with, and owned by Clark Gable, will also be shown. There are many legends about how Gable got the car. Some say Carole Lombard gave it to him, and others report he bought it in a battle of one up-manship with Gary Cooper.

Another auto of interest, is the 1938 Adler Lemans Speedster. Back in the late 1930s, these German Eagles (Adler is the German word for eagle) set the trends for advance engineering with all independent suspension and front wheel drive, and, above all, aerodynamics.

The Concours d'Elegance will take place from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tickets cost $15 adults (includes souvenir program), $5 children 5-12 (no program), children 4 and under, free.

All proceeds benefit Meadow Brook Hall which is used as a public educational and cultural center. Parking is free with convenient shuttle buses available to and from the parking area.

Tickets are available at the door or ahead of time. For tickets or more information, call (810) 370-3140.
